Scitis Youth Academy

We work with troubled youth. It's what we do and why we are here. Youth who will one day raise families, have sons and daughters playing t-ball in our parks, attending school dances, going to college, maybe even interacting with YOU at a grocery store. Might you be interested in helping us help these youth to one day be the type of person you want to be around when you are at t-ball with your grandchildren? The type of person you want to share a conversation with at the grocery store? If so, learn what you can do for our county's future by engaging in one of our Scitis [Latin = to know] Academies!

What, exactly, is this academy?

Its objective is to teach you about why the detention center exists and the work we do with our county's troubled youth to get them on the right track.

How many sessions are there?

There are four, consecutive two-hour sessions.

When is the next one?

Sometime in early 2018! (We will post dates in January.)

Is there a cost?

Nope – free!

After attending all four sessions you will come away with a better awareness and understanding of the Juvenile Detention Center and why there is continuous need for support from the community.

Mission:

Making the Medina community a better place by inspiring youth to become responsible, productive citizens.
