Shabbat 11 am

Fellowship begins with Praise & Worship. Cantor artists set apart our House of Worship.

We encourage devotion in motion, Davidic dance. Prayer, in the midst of our worship, is like a river rising. We petition HaShem (The Name) as it is in Heaven, so be it on earth. No sickness, sorrow, sin or strain. His Shalom!

A Jewish-decorated blue and gold bowl is beside the Menorah (a seven-branched candelabrum) to receive with joy your tithes, offerings and alms.

Torah Teaching

A midrash (teaching) from the Sacred Scripture Scrolls is offered. Torah Teaching follows the annual cycle read in synagogues each Shabbat around the world. Ours includes a Messianic adaptation.

Our Disciples Discussion begins with the teaching (listening & learning is enhanced by insightful questions) and continues with Oneg Shabbat.

Making disciples for Monday, not just someday, is how we disciple. How now should we live?

Oneg Shabbat 12:30 pm

A joyous pot-blessed fellowship meal adds zest and rest on the Sabbath. Everyone contributes. We eat, laugh, sing, play & plan the life giving and receiving in loving fellowship together. Children are delightfully encouraged.

Every Shabbat in the home-styled synagogue of 541 Country Lane, Mount Vernon, Missouri. Call 366.2428 or email dj@eukel.org midweek (Wed, latest Thur) to confirm your plans (who, how many, what you may offer for the meal, and to help prepare & clean-up).

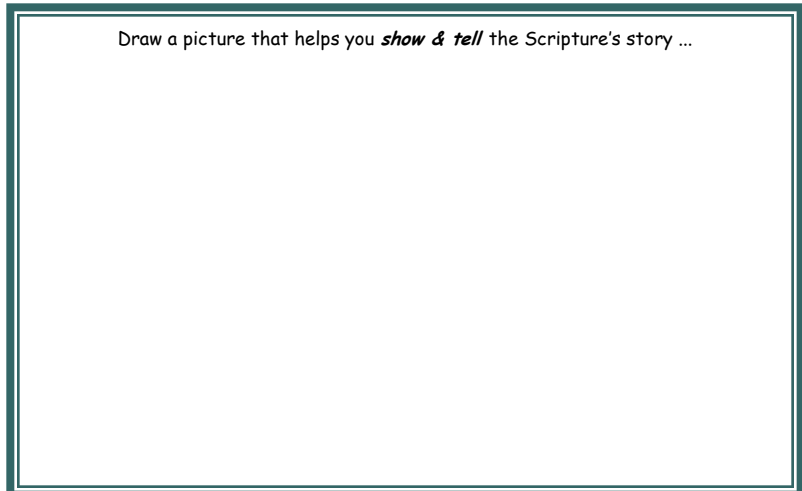

We are a fellowship that warmly welcomes Jews and Gentiles. Come listen, learn and worship Messiah Yeshua (Jesus).

~ What, Where & Why ~

~ Yeshua is GOD, Who is One. His Spirit dwells among us to Redeem, Restore, and Renew us in Right Relationships for Life Eternal

~ The Sacred Scripture Scrolls, GOD's Word, teaches right living rightly in workplaces and in relationships

~ Immersion is a public witness of obedience to spiritual new birth, drawn by GOD's Spirit

~ Healing is GOD's will

~ Loving GOD and Loving our neighbor are the Central Commands for those who are true followers (hearers and doers) of Yeshua

~ Making disciples of all peoples is the commission for each generation

~ Other Believers, who are not of the House of Isra'el, are fully joined as "one new man" in our Messiah Yeshua

~ The First Covenant, even the Gospel According to Moshe, is relevant and central to the Eternal Redemptive Plan of GOD. The New Covenant does not replace, improve nor diminish the First Covenant

~ Families are to teach children by living, loving and learning examples to support, attend, honor and respect GOD's Houses of Worship

Prayer on the Square

Thursday at Noon we lead in community

prayer for righteous leadership. When the righteous rule, the people rejoice.

We pray for GOD's Houses of Worship, our house, city hall, the school house, the court house, the State house, and yes, the White House.

We Pray for the Peace of Jerusalem.

We are intentional in reaching our community. The first Sabbath of a month is Legacy Leadership. A leader is invited to inform and inspire from the work of their heart, head and hands. We listen and learn Who Gets What, When, Where, Why and How (the politics of relationship). GOD's Peace, Pleasure and Prosperity is Promised when we display and obey His Loving Commands.

Torah Teaching Truth

Introductions

"Who are you? Who am I?" are introductory questions. The answers give value to voice and vision.

Moshe's first question to GOD was "Mi anochi? Who am I?" (Ex 3:11)

Moshe implies his doubts about succeeding in the task GOD has envisioned for him, lead the people of Isra'el out of Egypt. But also doubts about himself to be chosen by GOD—Who am I?

Yeshu'yahu (Isaiah) said, "I am a man of unclean lips," Isa 6:5.

Yirmeyahu (Jeremiah), "I cannot speak for I am a child," Jere 1:6.

David, great king of Isra'el, "Who am I," 2 Sam 7:18. Yonah (Jonah) ran away, rather than swallow the upstream commission of preaching to non-Jews in Nineveh.

These, like Moshe, doubted their own abilities. Some felt like giving up, even praying to die as did Moshe, Eliyahu, Yirmeyahu and Yonah.

The question, "Who am I," is also more direct as to identity. Who really was Moshe?

An Egyptian? 40 years that was his identity, Ex 2:19 an Egyptian rescued us? A Midianite? 40 years glad to stay on as a shepherd, married Zipporah, a Midianite.

Moshe, born of Levites, but raised a prince of Egypt, not suffering their slavery. Moshe's intervention not welcomed, Who appointed you ruler and judge?

Resisting involvement with Isra'el understandable. He did not identify with Isra'el. Who am I?

The naming of his son, Gershom, (foreigner there) is hint of Moshe's identity. But Ex 2:11 is the real key: he went out to visit his kinsmen.

Moshe, like Ruth, chose identity! Moshe's heart knew the answer.

GOD chose a humble leader.

Haftarah: Isa 27:6-28:13; 29:22-23; Jer 1:1-2:3

What do you see?

Moshe asked, Who am I? Yirmeyahu is asked twice by GOD, What do you see?

Is there a divine connection between the questions? Both relate to identity.

Both connect with The Divine. GOD chooses Moshe to lead who chose to be involved with Isra'el; Yirmeyahu sees an almond tree, whose nut fruit is shaped like an eye, GOD's Eye watching to fulfill His Word with Isra'el.

The haftarah portion in Yesha'yahu, GOD intends to rescue and save His people who choose Him!

Some will choose to identify their faith-trust in GOD on behalf of a deathly sick friend or family member. GOD is watching and selecting. "ADONAI has Some- one Strong and Powerful..." Isa 28:2

We have been made to know, "The thoughts of the righteous are right." Proverbs 12:5.

That is who you are. What do you see? Say it by the strong and powerful Spirit of GOD. People need to be rescued. Some may have to be taught in nursery rhymes, tzav la-tzav, tzav la-tzav Precept on precept, line by line...

Don't be children in your thinking edification. 1 Cor. 14:26

Tongues or prophecy? Rabbi Sha'ul, the emissary of Yeshua, is not really saying either-or but actually both-and.

First Covenant through a form of replacement theology mostly reject the

Tongues without interpretation is unproductive for the not-yet-a-believer among us. Yet Rabbi Sha'ul does not dismiss tongues entirely. Pray for the power to interpret when in public prayer and praise. Privately, let your spirit be lifted; publically, edify others with the understanding.

And ... prophesy!

... eagerly seek to prophesy; and do not forbid speaking in tongues; but let all things be done in a proper and orderly way." 1 Corinthians 14:39-40

Tongues with interpretation, or prophesy ... let everything be for

How is it that "new testament christians" who mostly dismiss the

First Covenant through a form of replacement theology mostly reject the gifts of GOD's Spirit today?

Yes abuse happens. Do we then discourage all moves of GOD's Spirit because we esteem orderliness above GOD's strong and powerful moves? Some do.

And signs and wonders too often do not follow those who are Believers, though GOD's Word proclaims they shall. I would rather ask the LORD, "Why couldn't we ...?" having tried but realize we are still children in our understanding.

As it is in Heaven, so be it on earth!
