Special Educational, Dietary and/or Health Considerations/ Other information

Anthos Arts works hard to uphold and respect equal rights. If you have any special educational, dietary and/or medical considerations that you believe will affect the participatory nature of Anthos Arts, and you feel are important to declare, please use the below box. This is so that we make sure measures are put in place and our young people are best supported during rehearsal times. Please note, as part of our contract with parents to provide the best experience for all participants, we will need to know of any details of intolerances, allergies, medical needs that may arise during rehearsals. If these change, please do get in touch with us: anthos-arts@outlook.com

Media/ photos/ videos

A part of Anthos Arts' new success has been our media attention. Please sign below to show that you are happy for us to photograph/video your child and that your child is allowed to be a part of any media used within our publicity. This is entirely optional and photos will not be shared without permission. Likewise we ask parents not to take photos during sessions in order to avoid documenting those who do not wish to be photographed by mistake.

Theatre Trip

As part of our mission to engage children in local artists and their work; we aim to arrange a theatre trip for the group each term. This term the story makers will be attending Exeter Northcott Theatre to see 'We're Going on a Bear Hunt' on Sunday 7th July at 2pm (there will be no normal session this week). Tickets will be paid separately to payment for the term. More information will be available at the start of term. If you would like your child to attend the trip, please let us know at the start of term. Parents are welcome to attend these outings as well.

Waiting List

To maintain facilitator to child ratios, spaces within the group are limited. If you wish for your child to be placed on the waiting list; should no space be available at the time of applying, please state below:

I wish for my child to be placed on the waiting list and to be contacted if a spaces becomes available.
