

About Prof. Rudra Sensarma

Prof. Rudra Sensarma is a Professor of Economics at the Indian Institute of Management Kozhikode where he is also Dean (Research, Innovation and Internationalization). He has more than 15 years of experience in policy research and teaching.

Before joining IIM Kozhikode in 2012, he had worked for the Reserve Bank of India, IIM Lucknow, University of Birmingham, Brunel University and University of Hertfordshire. Prof. Sensarma's research interests are in banking, monetary policy and development finance. He has published more than 35 articles in international scholarly journals and is on the editorial board of a few such journals.

He teaches courses in Macroeconomics, Econometrics and Business & Government. Prof. Sensarma has worked on funded research projects for various agencies such as NABARD, NITI Aayog and Ministry of Commerce and Industry, Government of India. He regularly writes opinion pieces for various newspapers and his research is frequently quoted in media stories on business and economy.