

Updated August 24, 2015

Electrical/Assembly Technician

Job Description

Established Manufacturing Company that specializes in the manufacture of innovative asphalt and aggregate sampling and testing equipment is seeking an Electrical/Assembly Technician to work in our manufacturing dept. The ideal candidate would have an electrical, pneumatic, mechanical background and would be responsible for the following:

- Manufacturing and Assembling Asphalt Testing Equipment from beginning to end.
- Ability to meet an established completion date on multiple projects
- Ability to read blueprints (electrical, mechanical, and pneumatic) and have a working knowledge of electrical systems, controls, etc.
- Ability to build electrical panels, perform general electrical wiring, and do electrical troubleshooting
- Ability to install motors, pumps, cylinders, etc. and all components needed to complete testing equipment
- Ability to utilize a computer, load software, and run tests with equipment utilizing a computer
- Ability to evaluate the quality of workmanship on equipment, and insure product meets all required quality requirements prior to shipment

Located in Covington Georgia next to I-20. If interested please call Wade Collins at 770-388-0909 or email him at wadec@pavementtechnology.com