November: A Month to Remember Our Loved Ones

During the month of November, the Church reminds us to remember our loved ones. Those who have gone before us. They are the ones who have contributed to our lives, built a part of who we are. We each become the person God created us to be but the people we live with or encounter play an important role in our lives. God allows that so we are able to be in communion with one another and learn to embrace others into our very life that become our brother and sister in Christ. The oneness of human community is called to resemble the perfect communion of the Blessed Trinity where there is no division, no hatred, and no jealousy. In addition, in the Blessed Trinity, there is a perfect love that yearns for the good of others and for the good of the creatures. November is upon us, we are invited by the Church to remember our loved ones, those who have gone before us. They might be the ones who are waiting to be reunited with God and our prayers would be a tremendous help. Every prayer with great love makes a great impact on ourselves and others because God looks to the heart and makes the impossible into possible.

SPIRITUAL LIFE COMMITTEE

Reflection: All Saints Day

I heard a story the other day of a very holy man. The commentator said, "We shouldn't call him a saint. If we sanctify him, we don't have to imitate him." This is precisely the opposite of the meaning of saints! Throughout the Church's history, we have honored saints, but not to set them apart. We honor saints to remind us what is possible for a person who loves God. The saints have stories as varied as our own. We have bishops, martyrs, teachers, doctors, former thieves and prostitutes, politicians and kings, soldiers and pacifists, single mothers, desert hermits? the list goes on! On this Solemnity of All Saints, we remember this garden of holiness, rich with diverse flowerings of a holy life. When you look at the life of your favorite saint, ask yourself, "How can I imitate this person? What is possible for me when I love God?"
