

NATIONAL WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH

Festival 2018

"Women Hold Up Half The Sky," Mao Zedong

The fight for gender equality is important and continues because women continue to need validation of value, vision and voice. On March 3, 2018, AlivenArts will kick off the first ever – National Women's History Month Festival! This is the first month-long, intentional program bringing the arts and women artists of all genres together in a month-long Festival.

This year's proceeds will be gifted to MUSE, Cincinnati's Women's Choir.

MARCH 3 - High School Women's Choirs and Singers are invited to the Filiae Mundi Sing-in with guest conductors: Robyn Lana Lisa Peters and Dr. Catherine Roma.
