

A little boy listened intently as his Bible class related the story of the rich man and Lazarus. She explained how comfortably the rich man lived - eating and dressing very well. In contrast, she described poor Lazarus covered with sores, desiring the crumbs from the rich man's table. She continued by telling that both men died. The rich man went to torment and Lazarus to Abraham's bosom. When she completed this Bible story, the teacher asked the class, "Which man would you rather be?" The lad who had listened so carefully quickly replied, "I would rather be the rich man while I live, then be Lazarus when I die."

The Bible makes it quite clear that we must face God in the judgment just as we have lived. One cannot live a goat's life, then be among the sheep in judgment (Matthew 25:32-33). Paul plainly states that "we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ: that everyone may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad" (II Corinthians 5:10). Twice in Revelation twenty John in describing the judgment scene states that the dead were judged "according to their works." In a related passage Paul writes, "For whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap. For he that soweth to his flesh of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting" (Gal. 6:7-8).

One cannot sow to the flesh and reap of the Spirit: he cannot live like the rich man and die like Lazarus. You can't do both!
