Goose Tatum

Blue Lake Walk To Emmaus #45, Table of Mark.

“Here I Am Lord”. I love that song and what it means when I sing it. I hate it when God takes me up on what I sing as literal. I know I told him I would do whatever He wanted me to do. But I didn’t think he would have me Lay Director of the Central Alabama Community. But one lesson I have learned since my Walk is that if God calls you, he will provide the Grace to you. As the church sign said, “God does not call the equipped, He equips the called.” So with a spirit of cooperation and charity and your prayers we welcome 2005.

We’re having 10 Walks this year, 5 men’s and 5 women’s. We will need your involvement. Everything from your silent prayers to your active involvement. If you don’t know how to get involved, all you have to do is call an upcoming Lay Director and ask them what you can do. They will be glad to put you in touch with someone who will help you get involved. Be prepared though if you say “Here I am Lord” you will follow through with the rest of the refrain which says, “I will go Lord, where You lead Me”

Finally a great big Emmaus hug to the departing board members; Wayne Hall, Christi Hall the volunteer secretary, JoAnn Waters, John Sherrer and Jerry Keel. If you see these servants to our community, give them a hug and pat on the back and thank them for the work and love they have put into our Community.

New Year, New Look

This first edition of the 2005 The Fourth Day newsletter has a whole new look. This change in format will save our volunteers time and resources, but we have had to cut back on some of the information presented to fit the smaller paper size.

As always, you can find more information about the upcoming Walks and the Central Alabama Emmaus Community by going to www.caew.org.

Please let us know your comments about these changes by sending an email to info@caew.org or by calling Dorann Frazer. Thanks for being a part of the Central Alabama Emmaus community and we'll see you at the upcoming walks this year. De Colores!
