JOURNALS

These journals were introduced as a way to chronicle what is being taught each week.

It may involve tracing, printing, drawing, following directions, or a glued on sheet of work.

We want to keep adding to our journal, so we have adapted some of our projects to be done at home.

Save, and at a later date, add them into the journal.

Size-fold a sheet of paper in half, hold vertically.

JOURNAL ENTRY

Today’s activity

Find 5 things that begin with w

Cut from magazines/junk mail or draw

You print letter w by each.

Ask a family member to write the rest of the word.

SAVE!

JOURNAL ENTRY

Willie Worm-best done horizontally

Draw a curvy W

Turn it into a worm.

What color will yours be?

Create a fun hat,

SAVE!

PLAYDOUGH

Take some playdough and make as many worms as you can.

Make their body into the letter W.

How many worms can you make? Lay them in rows of 10.

Count. How many did you get?

WWJD?

And let's not forget what you learned while in the jungle last week

When you had to make the right choice!

Ask yourself, "What Would Jesus Do?"

If you've had to do this in the past few weeks ...share the story with your teacher.

Dress up as Waldo

Jeans, red, white, stripes, red hat, glasses?

Send a photo to your teacher
