

Cain, Howard

Howard J. Cain, 56, of Caseville, formerly of Flint, died Sunday evening, Nov. 26, 2000, at McLaren Medical Center, Flint, of complications following cancer surgery. He was born July 24, 1944, in Norfolk, Va., while his father was stationed there in the service, to Rena (Perugini) Cain and the late Earl Cain. On Aug. 22, 1987, he was united in marriage to Kay (Hoy) Jensen at the Davison United Methodist Church. They moved to Caseville in July 1992. Howard lived in the Flint area most of his life. He graduated from GMI in Flint in 1967 and had been employed at GM Delphi for 35 years, retiring in 1998. He then took an engineering position at Tower Automotive, Inc., Elkton, in January 1999. He loved and enjoyed his family and friends and appreciated a quiet secluded place where he could go fly fishing. Surviving are his wife, Kay; two sons, Rodney Cain and his wife, Katherine, of Swartz Creek and Sgt. Jeremy Jensen of San Diego, Calif.; two daughters, Wendy Filipiak and her husband, Jim, of Eastpointe and Jamie Jensen of Wixom; two grandchildren, Megan and Aaron; his mother, Rena Cain, of Flint; his brother, Richard Cain and his wife, Karen, of Gaines; and a nephew, Ken Cain and his wife, Debby, of Idaho. Funeral services will be conducted at 11 a.m. Thursday, Nov. 30, 2000, at St. Roch Catholic Church, Caseville, with burial in Caseville Township Cemetery. Visitation will be 2 to 9 p.m. Wednesday at Champagne Funeral Chapel, Caseville, and after 10 a.m. Thursday at the church. Memorials may be given to the American Cancer Society or the Michigan Eye Bank.
