

CLARSIA MARIE WEBSTER

1911 - 1996

Clarsia Marie Webster, 85 of Kingsville, MO, formerly of Caseville, passed away Thursday, Sept. 5.

She was born on Oct. 8, 1911 in Huron County, daughter of the late Lott and Martha Ann (Gaspie) Swetwell. She was united in marriage to Charles Aiden Webster in Bay Port on Dec. 1, 1929. He preceded her in death on June 5, 1979.

Mrs. Webster lived in Michigan throughout most of her life, moving to Kingsville, MO in May, 1996. She was a homemaker, farmed with her late husband in Caseville, trained horses and did wallpapering. She was a member of the Church of Christ Restored in Holden, MO and formerly in Sanford, before moving to Missouri.

Surviving are five daughters, Martha Markay, North Pole, Alaska; Caroline Stead, Riviera Beach, FL; Alice Wood, Auburn; Charlene McCoy, Saginaw and Connie Myhalyk, Grand Rapids; one son, Leonard Webster, North Pole, Alaska; nine grandchildren; 10 great-grandchildren; one great-great-granddaughter and three sisters, Alma Snider, Detroit, Elnor Furness, Paris and Leona Franks, Savanna, TN.

Funeral services will be on Tuesday, Sept. 10 at 2 p.m. at the Caseville Cemetery, where the family will receive friends at 1 p.m. Pastor Gene Mitchell of the Church of Christ Restored of Sanford will officiate.

Local funeral arrangements are being conducted by the Meyersieck-Bussama Funeral Home, Pigeon.