

A Father's Example

Now that I'm the father of two boys, Father's Day means a lot more to me than it used to. I always appreciated my dad; now I just marvel at how he did it without killing me along the way.

Someone has said, "A father is a person who is forced to endure childbirth without anesthetic." I like Paul Harvey's observation: "Fathers give daughters away to other men who aren't nearly good enough, so they can have grandchildren who are smarter than anybody else's."

One of my favorites is the story of the little boy whose father had sent him to Sunday School but did not go himself. One day the boy approached his father and said, "Dad, did you go to Sunday School when you were a boy?" "Yes, Son, I always went to Sunday School." "Well, Dad, I think I'll quit going. It isn't doing me any good either."

Thanks, Dad, for sending me to Sunday School — and for going with me, too.

A Note from Mark

We live in a world where darkness resides and in order to be the light we must do all we can to ensure the safety of our children and members.

In order to be more pro-active in protecting our children and complying with State regulations, several things will begin taking place here at the LaSalle church immediately. First, anyone involved in any way with our children and teen program, must undergo and pass a criminal background check (there will be no exceptions). Second, policies and guidelines will be written and put into place regarding those working with children/teens. Those working with our children and teens must periodically review and agree to those policies.

Thank you for your understanding and support. The protection of our children is everyone’s responsibility – if you see something, say something!
