"Thus says the Lord: Fear not, for I have redeemed you: I have called you by name, you are mine."

Isaiah 43:1

Director's Note

We are very busy in March at RCS this year, starting with our Read Across America "days with Clifford the red dog visits" (thank you so much to our room moms). We also will have our book exchange and end March with our Easter Egg Hunts. As winter days are becoming longer the promise of Spring is present with our bulbs beginning to sprout in our front entrance and the warmer weather starting to appear. With the promise of Spring and new life we tell our RCS children that we have Jesus in our lives who died for us, rose again and still lives in our hearts. We tell them that the cross means Jesus loves us and that He will always be here for us.

Thank you so much to our parents for nice the responses for recyclables and for lending us your children's cash registers and shopping carts for "Supermarket Shopping" last month. We love the role playing that is present as they "shopped". Thank you dads for coming to our "Special Night with Dad". We hoped you liked making the frames to go with the photos of your child and yourself. Thank you also to our room parents for coordinating our Valentine parties.

To teach caring and show love to our children each of our classes made Valentine cards which were sent to shut- in Redeemer Lutheran Church members. We have received some nice thank yous from recipients who enjoyed the cards and chocolates.

Last month we also enjoyed visits from dental hygienist Miss Fatemeh from Randolph Pediatrics Dental Associates. She is wonderful with our children. Master Lim from his Tae Kwon Do Academy in Ledgewood will be with us this month to show the children what his training is like. Our great photographer, "Mr. Jim" from Christopher James Photography, is coming this month to capture the smiles of our RCS Students. He knows how to get those smiles! After our Easter Egg Hunts is our Easter vacation. Enjoy the start of the spring coming. Have a wonderful Easter and enjoy these busy days with your children!

God Bless you all,

Cindy Stevens & the RCS Staff

Our March activities are:

* Read Across America/Book Exchange - February 28th

March 1st & 2nd

Parents are asked to send in two age appropriate "gently used" books to be shared in a book exchange. Please place books in a bag and label for book exchange.

Children are encouraged to wear pajamas if they want to feel comfortable. Our special big red visitor will help us share in the love of reading. Any extra books left over will be added to our "RCS Little Free Library" in our doorway which was started by our alumnus Nolan Montalbano. Feel free to come inside with your child to choose a book to read or you may want to add one to our collection to share with the other children.

Wick Hegarty School of Irish Dance

On Friday, March 16th all are invited to come to RCS at 9:30 a.m. to see a performance by the Wick - Hegarty of Irish Dance with Emily Heinemann, one of our former RCS parents, her daughter Phoebe, an RCS graduate, and Emily's other students.

Author! Author!

We will have an author of a new children's book entitled: Eat Like An Animal, Act Like An Animal. Dawn Chiu will come to RCS on March 20th and March 21st to share her enlightening children's book to our RCS students. We look forward to her readings!

RCS Reaches Out!

Our children at RCS sent Valentine cards to some senior members of Redeemer Lutheran Church to send their love and best wishes. It's a good message to the children to show by example that we should think of others at all times and spread some sunshine!

New at Redeemer

Pastor Jaye will lead a Mom's Group on the 2nd and 4th Tuesday of each month.

Join other MOMS to share concerns and joys and look into God's Word together. They will meet in Fellowship Hall (down by the church sanctuary).

Bring your children who can play nearby in the nursery or sit on your lap as need be. The Bible Study, "Broken and Blessed" by Jessica La Grone will help frame the conversation. It's available in paperback and ebook from Amazon. MOMS of any age, of children of any age are welcome. If you have any questions you can reach Pastor Jaye Newbold at 973-584-6300(O) or 908-832-7193(H).
