We welcome all who are here today.

If you are a visitor we are honored to have you with us. Please fill out a Visitor Card (on the back of the pew in front of you). We would like for you to place the Visitor Card in one of the receptacles provided at the front and rear of the auditorium. There will be an opportunity to give but as a visitor it is not expected of you. Thanks.

There is a nursery at the rear of the auditorium up the stairs if you need to care for your infant.

Read God's Word

Please keep cell phones and other noise making devices silent. Thank you.

Prayers In our prayers, let's praise God, recognize His greatness, thank Him for His Son and His blessings.

Please pray as we continue our search for a gospel preacher.

Barb Oliver is recovering at home from a recent heart attack.

Marjorie Reed continues to recover at home.

Bill Kinney had successful heart procedure Sept. 28 and is home recovering. Please pray for Bill and also Kris as she ministers to Bill.

Sweet Hiding Place

from bulletin of Greenbrier church of Christ Greenbrier, AR

When we were children, a good hiding place could keep us occupied for hours. Even small children love the idea of making a little tent by draping a bedsheet over a couple of dining room chairs. It was good to feel safe and protected from imaginary forces lurking about, seeking to find our secret lair.

Fast forward a few years and discover that, buried deeply within, our longing for a secret hide-away is still a pleasant thought that occasionally comes to the surface, especially in difficult times.

With childlike trust, we seek refuge in the loving arms of our refuge and fortress, the God in whom we trust (Ps. 91:1-2). The outside forces are no longer imaginary as they once might have been in our childhood. But, in the shelter of His presence, there is sweet rest from the worries and cares which threaten to undo us (Ps. 31:19-20; Ph. 4:6-7).

The inspired psalmist picks up on this precious theme, praying, "Therefore let everyone who is godly offer prayer to you at a time when you may be found; surely in the rush of great waters, they shall not reach him. You are a hiding place for me; you preserve me from trouble; you surround me with shouts of deliverance" (Ps. 32:6-7).

In 1776, while walking along the gorge of Burrington Combe in the Mendip Hills of England, Augustus Toplady was caught in a storm. Finding refuge in a gap along the rocky ridge, he scribbled down the initial words of what would become a timeless Christian hymn. "Rock of Ages, cleft for me, Let me hide myself in Thee...." Of those penned by mortal man, few words have buoyed the spirits of wearied and troubled disciples as have these words. David sums it up in eight powerful words:

"You are my hiding place and my shield..." (Ps. 119:114).
