November 9, 2011

To the Sherburn and Welcome City Councils,

The department logged 97 calls for the month of October. This brings are total for the year to 1,120. This is still up over the last two years for the same period; however, October saw a decline in calls for the department.

The department's new web-site is up and running. The web address is www.sherburnwelcomepolice.org. Please feel free to visit the site and make any suggested additions that you can think of. This web-site is an excellent tool to get information out to both communities and I encourage any input you may have.

We are currently training in our newest part-time officer. Josh Nelson is currently going through the field training process and will be available to fill shifts starting around November 14. I will try to get Josh in to meet each city council in the next month. Josh is from the area and his brother, Tony, is the Chief of Trimont. Tony use to work part-time for the department.

Sincerely,
