

SELLING THE “CHAMETZ”

The Torah forbids a Jew to own any chametz during Passover, so we sell all chametz (left after the search and burning) to a non-Jew, with the Rabbi acting as our agent. The non-Jewish buyer gives a small deposit, and the balance becomes a guaranteed loan. The sale of chametz transaction is legally binding, but the buyer may return it and retrieve his deposit. Place all chametz utensils in a specific room or closet(s) to be sold, sealed with tape or lock, until after Passover.

SALE OF CHAMETZ FORM (Please Print or Type)

I (we*) (SELLER’S NAME (s) _____) hereby authorize Rabbi Shlomo Segal to dispose of all chametz in my (our) possession wherever it may be, at home, at my (our) place of business, or elsewhere - in accordance with the requirements of Jewish Law as incorporated in the special contract for the sale of Chametz.
