Re: Summer Fun Co-ed Program 2018

The Children's Summer Fun Program for the 2018 season was once again a huge success. Ruth Stratton and Kyle McAllister did an exceptional job as leaders. Kyle is a lifeguard at the aquatic centre, as such this allowed a few visits to Peppercorn to go swimming on some very hot days. Unfortunately during the last week of the program the smoke from the forest fires did not allow for outdoor activities as the air quality was very poor.

Following is the breakdown of attendance during the six weeks:

Week # 1	12
Week # 2	12
Week # 3	12
Week # 4	6
Week # 5	9
Week # 6	13

Attached is the full financial summary of the Children's Summer Fun Program.

Mayor & Council

Re: Grants

Councillor Patrick requested that information on the newly announced (Sept) Grant Programs be provided to Council for consideration of projects.

I have attached the cover sheets for Investing in Canada Infrastructure Program:

- Rural and Northern Communities Fund
- Community, Culture and Recreation Fund

These announcements were previously provided to Council but given there are three new members of Council I have copied and provided them for the Agenda. As Council identifies its priorities these may be critical sources of funding. The application process can be time consuming and require expertise from outside engineers (especially infrastructure related grants).

Council may wish to consider a process on how they wish to prioritize any opportunities, identify funding to support the application and ensure our funding commitment to our portion of the Grant or ongoing operating cost is identified.

Council direction is requested.

Sincerely,

Larry Plourde
Administrator

New infrastructure investments will build stronger communities

<https://news.gov.bc.ca/18002>

Wednesday, September 12, 2018 2:30 PM

Victoria - The federal and provincial governments are working together to deliver everything from new recreation centres to better internet, with two new infrastructure programs that will build up communities in every part of British Columbia.

The newly launched programs – the Community, Culture and Recreation fund, and the Rural and Northern Communities fund – are part of the Investing in Canada Infrastructure Program.

“Communities have been waiting too long for help building the arenas, community centres, and transit and energy infrastructure that people want and need,” said Selina Robinson, B.C.'s Minister of Municipal Affairs and Housing. “Together with the federal government, we are investing in infrastructure that will build up communities, strengthen local economies and create opportunities for people in every part of the province.”

The Community, Culture and Recreation program will provide access to funding for projects that upgrade and build sports facilities, trails, local community centres and spaces for arts and culture. It will also support health and educational facilities that uphold the Truth and Reconciliation Commission's Calls to Action.

The Rural and Northern Communities fund will ensure the unique needs of British Columbia's small, rural and remote communities with populations under 25,000 are met. The fund will support communities' wide range of infrastructure priorities, including broadband connectivity, efficient and reliable energy, Indigenous health and educational facilities, local public transit and reliable road, air or marine infrastructure, as well as improved resilience to natural disasters and environmental quality. For communities of 5,000 people or less, combined provincial and federal funding will cover up to 100% for eligible projects.

“The Government of Canada is pleased to see another part of this important funding agreement being put into action across B.C.,” said François-Philippe Champagne, federal Minister of Infrastructure and Communities. “Together with the Province, we are investing in infrastructure to strengthen local economies, improve public health and safety, and create greener, more socially inclusive communities where everyone has the chance to succeed.”

The Province is partnering with the federal government to invest up to $95 million toward an initial intake under the Rural and Northern Communities Program and more than $134 million toward an initial intake under the Community, Culture and Recreation Program.

“Investing in local infrastructure gives people better access to the services they need and helps build thriving communities,” said Claire Trevena, B.C.'s Minister of Transportation and Infrastructure. “With access to this new funding, people across B.C. and in northern and rural communities can stay connected and provide the important services people rely on to make life even better.”

The Investing in Canada Infrastructure Program will inject $3.9 billion into projects throughout B.C. over the next 10 years. In addition to these two funds, the program offers two other funding streams:

- Green Infrastructure
- Public Transportation Stream

“The programs announced today provide a further step towards closing the infrastructure gap in B.C.'s communities,” said Wendy Booth, Union of B.C. Municipalities president. “Both funds will contribute to the renewal and expansion of the services provided by local governments. I am very appreciative of the continuing investments by the federal and provincial governments in community infrastructure.”

Beginning Sept. 12, 2018, local governments and Indigenous communities, as well as eligible for-profit and not-for-profit organizations, are encouraged to submit applications for these programs through the Investing in Canada Infrastructure Program - B.C. program website: www.gov.bc.ca/Investing-in-Canada-Infrastructure-Program

Approvals are expected to be made public in late 2019.

Quick Facts:

- Through this first intake, the Province will contribute up to $57 million and $40.1 million, respectively, to the Community, Culture and Recreation Infrastructure program and the Rural and Northern Communities Infrastructure program.
- Through this first intake, the Government of Canada will contribute up to $77.7 million and $54.7 million, respectively, to the Community, Culture and Recreation Infrastructure program and the Rural and Northern Communities Infrastructure program.
- For each project in the Community, Culture and Recreation stream, projects may receive the following funding toward eligible costs:
 - up to 33% provincial funding and up to 40% federal funding for local government projects;
 - up to 15% provincial funding and up to 75% federal funding for Indigenous projects; and
 - up to 25% provincial funding and up to 40% federal funding for not-for-profit projects.
- For each project in the Rural and Northern Communities stream, they may receive:
 - up to 40% provincial funding of eligible costs for local government projects with populations of 25,000 or less. The federal government will contribute up to 60% for communities with populations of 5,000 or less (a combined 100% funding), and up to 50% for communities with populations between 5,001 and 25,000 (a combined 90% funding);
 - up to 25% provincial funding and up to 75% federal funding for Indigenous projects;
 - up to 25% provincial funding and up to 50% federal funding for not-for-profit projects, and
 - up to 15% provincial funding and up to 25% federal funding related to for-profit projects.

Guidance on Aligning with Outcomes and Program Requirements

For the Investing in Canada Infrastructure Program, Infrastructure Canada has moved to using an “outcomes based” approach as opposed to considering applications under various categories. So instead of applying under categories such as “Community” or “Recreation”, applicants must ensure that their project will support one of the federal program outcomes for it to be eligible.

If the project also meets other program requirements and criteria, the following types of projects would generally be seen as eligible under the program. This document has been created by BC Ministry of Municipal Affairs and Housing staff to give applicants an idea of what projects are eligible. It is not intended to be a comprehensive list of eligible projects.

Community, Culture and Recreation Outcomes

Outcome: Improved Access to and Increased Quality of Community, Culture and Recreation Infrastructure

Congratulation Council Members

You are a diverse group with many different backgrounds and perspectives and I am looking forward to seeing all that you can accomplish as a team.

One of the biggest complaints I kept hearing during this election was transparency and no knowledge of what council members actually do. Others found council meetings to be too formal and hard to follow

I propose that once a month a council member does a meet and greet on a Saturday to share their ideas / plans and to listen to community concerns. Which they could bring back to the formal council meeting for discussion.

The meet and greet could be done in any of our fine eating establishments or in the vault. As there are five members on council it would just be 2 months each with the mayor doing 3. December is a hectic month for everyone so it could be missed. I challenge Mayor Unger to do the first one this November, I know I would attend!

Best regards to all of you, I hope you accept this challenge.
