

Export Seminar Series – Turkey and Greece

Take part in an interactive market briefing from the U.S. Commercial Service in Turkey and Greece on current market opportunities, along with an overview of the benefits and challenges of exporting to these markets. Following the briefing, participants will hear from experienced exporters to the region.

Thursday, January 29, 2015
Nexsen Pruet (www.nexsenpruet.com)
1230 Main Street #700 | Columbia, SC 29203
Tel: (803) 771-8900
Time: 9:00 am – 1:30 pm

Cost $45 per person. Reference materials and morning pastries/coffee included. To register please Click Here or go to <http://www.sctrade.org/events.html>.

Seating is limited so registration and payment are required to guarantee your seat.

Schedule of Events:

8:30 – 9:00 a.m. Registration

9:00 - 9:05 a.m. Welcome and Introduction

- Dorette Coetsee, Director, South Carolina U.S. Export Assistance Centers

9:05 - 9:45 a.m. Turkey Market Opportunity Briefing

- Larry Farris, Commercial Counselor, U.S. Embassy Ankara, Turkey
- Private-sector speakers TBA

9:45- 10:00 a.m. Q&A

10:00 - 10: 45a.m. Greece Market Opportunity Briefing

- Bryan Larson, Commercial Counselor, U.S. Embassy Greece
- Private-sector speakers TBA

10:45 - 11:00 a.m. Q & A

11:00- 11:15 am Break

11:15 - 12:00 a.m. Incentives for Exporters

- Anita Patel, SC Department of Commerce

12:00- 12:15 making the most of your International Business Development

- Dorette Coetsee, Director, South Carolina U.S. Export Assistance Centers

12:15 – 1:30 p.m. Lunch & Adjourn

Contact Dorette Coetsee, (803) 777-2571/ dorette.coetsee@trade.gov

