Praying for unity

Everv January, the Christian church worldwide marks the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity. This ecumenical "octave," or eightday observance, lasts from January 18 (the Feast of St. Peter) to January 25 (the Feast of St. Paul).

The week is based on Jesus' prayer to his heavenly Father in John 17:21 that his followers "may all be one ... so that the world may believe that you have sent me" (ESV). Jesus knew that if Christians were fiercely divided, people outside the faith wouldn't want to learn more about him.

The theme for the 2019 Week of Prayer for Christian Unity is from Deuteronomy 16:20 (NRSV): "Justice, and only justice, you shall pursue."

Tree of Life Church: united in worship, sharing Jesus and serving all people.

Pastor's message..

You've gotta' move by Pastor Tara L. Eastman

It's a brand new year. It's a totally new day. The number for this new year 2019, reminds me of many science fiction movies filled with exciting plots and never-ending opportunities. I'm not suggesting that this year will be one filled with flying cars and robots, although that might be cool, but I have this gut feeling that 2019 is a year for forward looking and brave step-taking. While I write this note on the Eve of the new year, I find myself looking back to what 2018 was. I keep thinking those thoughts like: What if I did this, that or the other thing? Would this last year have turned out different if I'd done: this, that and the other?

If permitted to, I suppose I could spend all this upcoming year fussing over what could have been in 2018, but spending my time in this way would not be wise in light of the hope and newness of the year to come.

Isaiah 43: 16,18,19 says, "This is what the Lord says, 'Forget the former things; do not dwell on the past. See, I am doing a new thing! Now it springs up; do you not perceive it? I am making a way in the desert and streams in the wasteland."

God understands the human tendency to look to the past, to romanticize the past, and to strive to re-gain it. No doubt, the lessons we learn from life experiences are valuable. However, those past experiences are ones we can't return to. We may wish for a time machine to address all of our would-haves and could-haves, but the fact remains - the past is past.

One of my favorite sections of this verse in Isaiah is, "See, I am doing a new thing!" It is so inspiring that God, who created the universe, time and all of creation; gets excited and likes doing new things! So if God gets excited by new things and encourages us not to dwell on the past; shouldn't we get a little amped up over the New Year and the opportunities it holds?

So as the new year begins, I will do my best to stop looking to the past and trying to reclaim it. I will think optimistically, creatively and even (gasp!) outside the box that I call, "my life".

We may have to move into some new, challenging and unfamiliar territory to meet this New Year with a smile; but I'd rather move forward into 2019 like W.H. Auden so beautifully expresses: "I want to approach the future as a friend, without a wardrobe of excuses."

Happy New Year 2019 to you and yours. May your days be filled with opportunity, possibility and the courage to keep moving forward. Come 'on all, we've got to move!

"You gotta move, You gotta move, You gotta move, child, You gotta move And when the Lord, get ready...You gotta move

You may be high. You may be low. You may be rich, child. You may be po'. But when the Lord gets ready You gotta move.

You may be up. You may be down. You may be buried livin' in the ground. But when the Lord get ready. You gotta move."

Lyrics to "You've gotta move" by the band Lost Dogs.

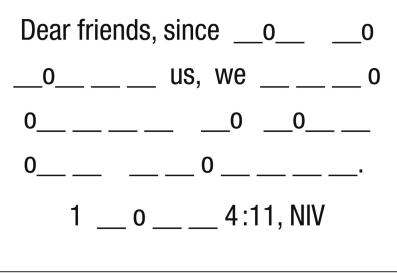

The 10 words below are spelled correctly but are missing the letter 0. Use them to complete the Bible verse below, where you'll find all the missing 0's.

Mission Message

GIFTS

As we celebrate the season of Epiphany, we remember the gifts the wise men brought to the baby Jesus. If you could give Jesus a gift, what would it be? You can, you know, and you actually already do. Because your congregation sends a portion of your offering to the Synod, you give gifts to Jesus all over the world. Jesus, in the form of a teenager from Central America who is in the United States because he fears for his life at home (Accompanying Migrant Minors with Protection, Advocacy, Representation, and Opportunity). Jesus, in the form of a family in California who just lost everything in the wild fires (Lutheran Disaster Relief). Jesus, who lives in Zimbabwe and has a school to go to thanks to you (World Hunger). Jesus, a student at college who is lonely and looking for guidance (Campus Ministry). Jesus, a refugee at the border (Lutheran Immigration and Refugee Services). Jesus, a seminary student who can't pay her tuition (Fund for Leaders). All these ministries, and many more, are funded by Mission Support. If you'd like to learn more, go to ELCA.org and click on the "Our Work" tab.

May God bless this new year, and each congregation and member in their commitment to do God's Work with Our Hands.

We are church together for the sake of the world.

God's Work. Our Hands.
