However, any misuse by you of social media in a manner that does not directly refer to Mid Penn Elite Youth Football Association may still be regulated by other policies, rules or regulations of Mid Penn Elite Youth Football Association.

Using social media in an official capacity

You must be authorized by the Mid Penn Elite Youth Football Association Executive Board of Directors before engaging in social media as a representative of Mid Penn Elite Youth Football Association.

As a part of Mid Penn Elite Youth Football Association's, community you are an extension of the Mid Penn Elite Youth Football Association brand.

As such, the boundaries between when you are representing yourself and when you are representing Mid Penn Elite Youth Football Association can often be blurred. This becomes even more of an issue as you increase your profile or position within Mid Penn Elite Youth Football Association. Therefore, it is important that you represent both yourself and Mid Penn Elite Youth Football Association appropriately online at all times.

Guidelines

You must adhere to the following guidelines when using social media related to Mid Penn Elite Youth Football Association or its business, products, team organizations, competitions, teams, participants, services, events, sponsors, members or reputation.

Use common sense

Whenever you are unsure as to whether or not the content you wish to share is appropriate, refrain from sharing the content.

When using social media, the lines between public and private, personal and professional, may be blurred. Remember, you are an ambassador for Mid Penn Elite Youth Football Association and all of the Team Organizations within the Mid Penn Elite Youth Football Association.

Protecting your privacy

Be smart about protecting yourself and your privacy.

When posting content online there is potential for that content to become publicly available through a variety of means, even if it was intended to be shared privately. Therefore, you should refrain from posting any content online that you would not be happy for anyone and everyone to see, even if you feel confident that a particular individual or group would never see it.

You should also be cautious about disclosing your personal details.

Honesty

Your honesty—or dishonesty—may be quickly noticed in the social media environment. Do not say anything that is dishonest, untrue or misleading. If you are unsure, check the source and the facts before uploading or posting anything. The Mid Penn Elite Youth Football Association recommends erring on the side of caution – if in doubt, do not post or upload.

Do not post anonymously, using pseudonyms or false screen names. Be transparent and honest. Use your real name, be clear about who you are and identify any affiliations you have.

If you have a vested interest in something you are discussing, point it out. If you make an endorsement or recommendation about something you are affiliated with, or have a close relationship with, you must disclose that affiliation.

The web is not anonymous. You should assume that all information posted online can be traced back to you. You are accountable for your actions both on and offline, including the information you post via your personal social media accounts and closed or private groups you administer or actively participate in.

Use of disclaimers

Wherever practical, include a prominent disclaimer stating who you are affiliated with (e.g. member of Mid Penn Elite Youth Football Association or Team Organizations) and that anything you publish is your personal opinion and that you are not speaking officially. This is good practice and is encouraged, but it may not have legal effect.

Respect confidentiality and sensitivity

When using social media, you must maintain the privacy of Mid Penn Elite Youth Football Association's confidential information. This includes information that is not publicly accessible, widely known, or not expected to be shared outside of Mid Penn Elite Youth Football Association and all of the Team Organizations within the Mid Penn Elite Youth Football Association.

Within the scope of your authorization by Mid Penn Elite Youth Football Association, it is perfectly acceptable to talk about Mid Penn Elite Youth Football Association and all of the Team Organizations within the Mid Penn Elite Youth Football Association and have a dialogue with the community, but it is not okay to publish confidential information of Mid Penn Elite Youth Football Association and all of the Team Organizations within the Mid Penn Elite Youth Football Association.

Confidential information includes things such as details about litigation, unreleased information and unpublished details about but not limited to: our board, team organizations, teams, coaching practices, financial information and trade secrets.

When using social media, you should be considerate to others and should not post information when you have been asked not to, or where consent has not been sought and given. You must also remove information about another person if that person asks you to do so.

Permission should always be sought if the use or publication of information is not incidental, but directly related to an individual. This is particularly relevant to publishing any information regarding minors. In such circumstances, parental or guardian consent is mandatory.

Gaining permission when publishing a person's identifiable image

You must obtain express permission from an individual to use a direct, clearly identifiable image of that person.

You should also refrain from posting any information or photos of a sensitive nature. This includes accidents, injuries, incidents or controversial behaviour.

In every instance, you need to have consent of the owner of copyright in the image.

Complying with applicable laws

Do not post or link to content that contains illegal or indecent content, including defamatory, vilifying, misleading and deceptive content.

Abiding by copyright laws

It is critical that you comply with the laws governing copyright in relation to material owned by others and Mid Penn Elite Youth Football Association's own copyrights and brands.

You should never quote or use more than short excerpts of someone else's work, and you should always attribute such work to the original author/source. It is good practice to link to others' work rather than reproduce it.

Discrimination, sexual harassment and bullying

The public in general, and Mid Penn Elite Youth Football Association's members, reflect a diverse set of customs, values, and points of view.

You must not post any material that is offensive, harassing, discriminatory, embarrassing, intimidating, sexually explicit, bullying, hateful, racist, sexist or otherwise inappropriate.

When using social media, you are also bound by Mid Penn Elite Youth Football Association's values and Zero Tolerance Policy.

Avoiding controversial issues

Within the scope of your authorization by Mid Penn Elite Youth Football Association, if you see misrepresentations made about Mid Penn Elite Youth Football Association in the media, you may point that out to the relevant authority in your Team Organization. Always do so with respect and with the facts. If you speak about others, make sure what you say is based on fact and does not discredit or belittle that party.

Dealing with mistakes

If Team Organization or a member of that Team Organization makes an error while posting on social media, be up front about the mistake and address it quickly. If you choose to modify an earlier post, make it clear that you have done so. If someone accuses Team Organization or a member of that Team Organization of posting something improper, address it promptly and appropriately and if necessary, seek legal advice.

Conscientious behaviour and awareness of the consequences

Keep in mind that what you write and post is your responsibility, and failure to abide by these guidelines could put your position, membership, affiliation, and Team Organization at risk.
