

BIOGRAPHIES

Lynn Robbins is an expert in Common Interest Development management and brings nearly 25 years of professional management experience to PHOAC. Specializing in client relations, Ms. Robbins is responsible for managing properties ranging from master associations, business parks, luxury high-rises to full portfolios of both Community Associations and Residential Management.

Ms. Robbins obtained the Industry credential of Certified Community Association Manager from the California Association of Community Managers in 2002 and is dedicated to providing her communities and boards with communication, an eye for detail and maximizing their financial performance. Lynn is also an active member of the National Association of Professional Women.

Originally from Ohio, Ms. Robbins moved to San Diego in 1983 and then to La Mesa where she raised two children and volunteered with various organizations such as AYSO Soccer, La mesa Bobby Sox, Scouts and many school programs. When not working, she enjoys traveling the many coastal beaches, painting, and is a practitioner of Reiki.

Lynn Robbins, CCAM

Community Association Manager

