Season:

January-March

First Aid Kits/Ice

Banner Health provides on-location first-Aid and athletic training services. Teams must provide their own tape and supplies.

Scoreboard/Book Operations:

Teams are required to provide a volunteer during the league games. Scoreboard operations are under the same guidelines as if working a state high school league game. All efforts are mandated by unbiased support.

Game Times:

Typically, teams will play 2 games in a 4-hour maximum, and 3 games in a 5-hour maximum.

Results posted

Results are posted the Monday following games. All results are available online.

Season Ending Tournament/Winter Finals:

Included in the league fee.

Spectator Admission:

Adult: $5.00/adult/day

High School and below: FREE

State High School League Mandated Bench Decorum:

The state high school league bench decorum is enforced for all head coaches, assistant coaches, and players. The state high school league coach's box is enforced.

Coaches are held to the same decorum as a state high school game, and technical foul violations, etc., will be enforced in the same manner as a state high school league game.

Any coach approaching an official in a negative manner, or to comment in a negative manner after a game, will automatically be suspended for 1 game. Any coach receiving 2 technical fouls in a game will automatically be removed from the current event and suspended for 1 game.

Spectator Code of Conduct:

It is EXTREMELY IMPORTANT PARENTS UNDERSTAND THE FOLLOWING RULE.

If any parent approaches an official at any time during weekend games (for whatever reason!), it results automatically, without exception the following enforcement.

The parent AND THE CHILD of that parent are suspended for 2 games. (no exceptions)It is extremely important that parents understand this policy and respect their boundaries. Nothing positive is gained at any point for approaching and arguing a call, or anything negative directed towards officials. They must have a safe and respectful environment to work each weekend.

No one is allowed to approach our staff regarding their opinion of officials or concerns regarding management of the games. If an incident occurs, they must complete an incident report form located at the front desk, and submit it via email to registration@powertoplaysports.com on Monday following the weekend games.

Any form submitted in any other format will be ignored.

Insurance:

All teams participating are covered under our insurance, and automatically have coverage for their practices.

Rosters:

Rosters are fixed for the duration. Teams are NOT allowed to pick up players from week to week. Players are not allowed to play on 2 teams in the same division

Teams are not allowed to pick up players for tournament play who have not participated in the regular season play.

Any changes in a roster must be submitted in writing prior to each weekend of play and must be approved by the director.

Violation of roster will result in potential suspensions of the head coach, players and team.

Tier Level of play:

Teams are placed in tier level of talent initially. As the league progresses, we evaluate the results, win/losses, +/- point differential and move teams up and down in divisions to ensure competitive games.

Tier I: Advanced travel and/or school based teams that possess the physical size, speed, and experience to compete at the high level.

Tier II: Average travel and/or school based teams. These teams are best suited for those that have competed in the past, but more average in size, skill and experience.

Tier III: Recreational level best for new teams, typically those that are experience for the first time travel basketball and making the transition from the community based rec. programs to travel league play.

Weather Issues:

In the event of bad weather and potential cancellations, all updates will be posted on the main page of our website, www.powertoplaysports.com. In the event of a date being cancelled due to weather, remaining games will be converted to tournament play with the individual choices of the teams participating.

Website as information portal:

www.powertoplaysports.com, and the league page is the primary source of information for all participants. Updates are made, and time-stamped. We ask that people continue to review the website and look for updates.
