Sunday Meditation

It seems to me that God's blessings flow into us most abundantly when they're flowing out to others most lavishly. All the blessings we enjoy are meant to be shared freely with our faith family and with our neighbors: "Do good to all men as you have opportunity, especially to the household of faith" (Gal. 6:10). We all want to be blessed, and God wants to bless us. But He has ordained certain principles of giving and receiving. He hasn't made us warehouses of blessings to be hoarded or doled out scarcely. Or reservoirs of good things to be measured out in trickles. He has made us living springs of blessings always overflowing, always pouring out good will and benevolence in every direction. As long as God's blessings are flowing out of us, they'll never cease to flow in: we'll be like watered gardens "whose streams do not fail" (Isaiah 58:11). All for Jesus, Richard

A worship time for ages 3-5 during the message time of adult worship. The kids will learn Biblical lessons each week & do a craft. The Kingdom Kids room is located in the foyer, to the left, as you exit the doors. The green trees on the wall make it easy to find. This is for children who are too old for nursery, but have the wiggles during the sermon! Today's teacher's are Lynn & Helen. If your child has an allergy, please let us know, as we sometimes serve a snack. Parent's; your children will return to their seats during the closing announcements by our elders. We pray that this time will be a blessing for you & your children at Newnan Church of Christ!
