A Note from our President

Spring greetings everyone! I hope all are well and returning to some sort of normalcy. So let me cheer you up with an update of happenings at YOUR Club. We are about 80% completed on the full interior renovation of the clubhouse and OMG—it's incredible! 1) Newly painted walls. 2) New floor. 3) New ceiling. 4) New bar & bar face. 5) New hallway. 6) Both restrooms. 7) New carpet on stage. 8) Painting all exterior doors. 9) New chairs & possibly tables. Outside we have added a second drive lane from the entrance to the pavilion. More gravel in the parking lot. New pad & soon an enclosure around the dumpster. Electric is run to the club entrance for a lighted sign & possibly lighted arch.

These are very exciting times at YOUR Newark Männerchor! Sorry to report that private donations are down from last renovation, but with a little help from our members, we can meet our need to finish this. And trust me, when you see YOUR new club, you'll see money well-spent.

Other news: We just had our best curbside pickup spaghetti & Walt's noodle dinner to date. As of now, we will resume all scheduled meetings in May. If altered, members will be informed. At this point, the Ox Roast is a GO THIS YEAR! Planning will begin in May. We are also planning a grand re-opening sometime soon for members & donors. More to come! I hope everyone can come down & witness the love our members have for their Club.

Like always, thanks to Deb Jackson in our Southern Command for making sure everyone gets all the news from the Club and also keeps me on track. Thanks Deb! Until next time,

Your President, Mike
