

Budzynowski, Jerry

Mitchell "Jerry" Budzynowski, 63, passed away on Thursday, October 6, 2005, at his home in Bad Axe after a fierce eight-year battle with colon cancer. He was born May 9, 1942 in Highland Park, son of Louise (Czackowski) Budzynowski and the late Ned. He graduated from Warren Consolidated Schools in 1959. Following graduation, he joined the Army. He served in the Army Military Police at Cape Canal, Panama. In 1963, he was hired at GM Hydromatic, Warren, where he worked until his retirement in November of 1995 from a supervisory position. Jerry and Marcie Sikoski were married September 9, 1985 in Bad Axe. Jerry was parishioner at Sacred Heart Catholic Church, Bad Axe, a former member of the Bird Creek Golf Course and loved hunting, golf, softball, cards, and most of all, he enjoyed making people smile. Surviving are his wife, Marcie; his mother, Louise Clawson; two sons, William Budzynowski and his wife, Heather, of Macomb Township, and David Budzynowski, of Warren; one daughter, Michele Budzynowski, of Clinton Township; one grandson, Joseph Mitchell Budzynowski; one granddaughter, Alys Maxine Budzynowski; one brother, James Budzynowski, of Macomb Township. Services will be conducted at 11 a.m. on Monday, October 10, 2005, at Sacred Heart Catholic Church, Bad Axe. The Rev. James Carlson, pastor, will officiate. Cremation will follow. Visitation will be from 1 to 9 p.m. today at the H.W. Weitenberner Funeral Home, Bad Axe, where a parish scripture service will be conducted at 7 p.m. by Fr. John Killop. On Monday, visitation will be from 10 a.m. until the service time at 11 a.m. at the church. The family would like to thank Huron Medical Center and A & D Home Care. Special thanks to Dr. Tracy McComb for the kindness and compassion given to Jerry and his family during this trying time. Memorials may be offered to the Hurricane 2005 Relief Fund through the American Red Cross at (800) HELP-NOW.
