Harvard's Dr. Howard Gardner has described several different ways that people can be smart, some not measured by IQ testing. Learn how people can process information differently, and how understanding these differences can help you relate to different

HOLIDAY ON WHEELS

Calling one and all! It's time to sign up for our Passover Holiday on Wheels! Our Mitzvah Mommas are the best! They (and now you?) give of their time to visit senior living facilities and nursing homes during Rosh Hashanah, Chanukah, and Passover to share these holidays with the residents. We interact with the residents while conducting programs that bring the holiday memories, foods, and songs to life. Our participants leave knowing that they got as much from the experience as did our guests.

We hope you will consider joining us for the programs before Passover? Signing on is easy- just check the list below, then email me with your preferred location, date, and time. I will get back to you to confirm and keep in touch with all the details.

LOW VISION BOOK CLUB

For many years NCJW member Shelly Gross has run a low vision book club at the independent living facility Five Star Premium Residences, at 22601 Camino Del Mar, Boca Raton, (561) 750-7100. She meets with residents once each month to discuss the latest book, either available in large print or as an audiobook. After all this time, Shelly has decided to move on and she is looking for a generous lady who would be willing to take over for her.

Shelly has been visiting with her readers on the third Wednesday of the month at 1:30 for an hour, though the actual day and time can be negotiated with the activities director, Sami Bryant. This is a wonderfully satisfying activity for anyone who loves to read and loves to talk about books.

If you have additional questions about leading a low vision book club, please email Shelly at: sgross16@bellsouth.net.

FROM THE MEMBERSHIP DESK

We had another successful Meet & Greet on January 22nd at the home of Laurie Tamber. All the attendees became members. We look forward to their future involvement in our organization.

We would like to have one more Meet & Greet in late February or early March. In order to do so, we need a hostess and names of prospective members. Please let me know if you are willing to offer your home. Do you know someone who wants to learn more about NCJW? Send me the names and email addresses and I will take it from there! Only through growth can we continue to be a dynamic Section.

Thank you,

Judy Finder

Computer Printing Tip:

Have you ever wanted to print out only one page of a bulletin? Here's how it works on a PC:

At the top of the screen, do not click on the printer picture. Instead click on the word FILE, then click on PRINT.

After the PRINT box shows, select from the Pages To Print options.

ALL = prints every page in the document

CALLING ALL ADVOCATES

The Advocacy Committee of NCJW-SE Atlantic Section is meeting on Friday, February 16, at 9:30 AM at the Palm Beach County Library on Hagen Ranch Road (north of Atlantic), in the conference room. All are welcome to attend to plan our next advocacy activities in all areas, including sex trafficking, reproductive rights, gun safety, and voting rights. We will also be following up on an idea that evolved during our December general meeting: setting up regular meetings with all our legislators in their local offices. Bring your ideas and your enthusiasm. Any questions, contact Lillian Kaminer via email (LEKaminer@aol.com) or phone (561-482-9592).

TALLAHASSEE DAYS

NCJW members from throughout Florida visited the State Capitol on Jan. 30 and 31 for Lobby Days, meeting with legislators to explain our position on pending legislation. Rep. Emily Slosberg surprised us by announcing that a resolution had just been passed recognizing February 12-16, 2018, as Jewish American Heritage Week in Florida, following the national initiative begun in 2005. Festivities are scheduled in Tallahassee that week. We also received strong support for NCJW issues from State Senator Kevin Rader, Representative David Silvers, and others. Our group from Palm Beach County, Sarasota, Miami, and Jacksonville also had dinner with the Tallahassee Section.

RSVP: <http://tinyurl.com/NCJW-March-20-18>

A dynamic and entertaining speaker, Dr. Wagner focuses on social media's transformational effect on U.S. politics and the ability of social networking to generate votes in political campaigns.

Dr. Wagner has lectured extensively on American politics and has been cited in many leading newspapers including the New York Times, Boston Globe, New York Newsday, the Dallas Morning News, and the Miami Herald. He has been featured on national television including NBC's "The Today Show."

GOOD TIMES: OUR CARD PARTY-LUNCHEON

TRIBUTES SAY YOU CARE

Honor a family member, colleague, friend or loved one by giving a gift to NCJW SE Atlantic Section. A handwritten tribute card with a message of support, celebration or sympathy will be mailed to the recipient. Your gift supports local projects and those in Israel. It's really useful to keep your own supply on hand. Buy a bunch!

We are sad to report the loss of a life member and past executive board member, Risa Miron. She was the loving wife of Robert and mother of James.

With a sad heart, we inform you of the passing of Dr. Ed Alster beloved husband of life member and current board member Roz Alster.

We wish a speedy recovery to Robin Yablonsky who has returned home after knee surgery.

JEWISH LEADER'S SCHOLARSHIP

Are You "Judgmental?" Then Join the Jewish Leader of Tomorrow Scholarship Committee

The scholarship committee is looking for volunteers to help read the Jewish Leader of Tomorrow scholarship essays. This is a one time volunteer opportunity where you get to judge the applicants' essays and help select a winner. For this scholarship, the section seeks to identify young women in Broward and South Palm Beach Counties who show the potential to become Jewish leaders of tomorrow. A $1000 scholarship will be awarded to one high school senior who embodies the pioneering spirit of NCJW. The award may be used for tuition or related expenses for higher education, travel for Jewish leadership training or travel to an NCJW national event.

The committee meets in late February or early March to select the winner. If you are interested in joining the committee please contact Ellen Hahn at ellenberk@hotmail.com or Janet Solitt at janetsol@aol.com.

Thank you,
