About the Lecturer

Mark has been a professional magician for over 20 years. His approach to magic is simple, funny and direct— yet still he will deliver you jaw dropping material that is guaranteed to have 100% impact on any audience. Mark has created many routines that are used world-wide by top performers. Mark has travelled the world giving his lectures to magicians.

What You Will Learn

Although Mark's lectures cover effects in many fields: cards, coins, ropes, mentalism, close up, strolling and stand up, the key is always on entertainment. You will quickly become aware Mark has all the skills, but we are sure you will agree his number one skill is his PEOPLE SKILLS. While Mark is known as a magic demonstrator, this will NOT be a dealer-demo.
