ONE ISLAND FAMILY SERVICES BY ZOOM SEPTEMBER 2020:

SEPTEMBER 13 SERVICE: "Hurricane Hurrah!"

For those of you who are counting, HurricaneSeason 2020 began on June 1 and ends on November 30= 183 days. Simple math tells me we have 105 days 'down,' and 78 to go. . . Must be a good Sunday to celebrate!

This Sunday we invite you to break bread with us: i.e. to share a meaningful connection, a moment of fellowship. Pack your own picnic, real or virtual, settle in a comfortable and socially distanced spot, and ZOOM along with us!

Think of favorite picnics along the road of your life and the stories therein to share; reach out to Nancy 3. (3nancy3@gmail.com) with favorite camp/share the road/picnic songs; and simply enjoy our time together for love and laughter. See you on zoom!

SEPTEMBER 20SERVICE: NATASHA MARK OV- RISS

"TheIsraeli/Palestinian/American Conflict" A personal perspective gained while filming a student documentary in the Middle East. Two years later Natasha reflects on the region and the film. Based on the 21 minute film "Walled" which can be viewed at:

SEPTEMBER 27 SERVICE* NANCY 3. HOFFMAN "- Béla Bartók "- the Romanian/Hungarian Unitarian composer. A trail blazer in the world of classical music, Béla Bartók was raised in the Austro-Hungarian Empire. He used folk melodies from around the Balkan countries for much of his music. He converted to Unitarianism from his upbringing as a Catholic. His music and faith will be explored, with many musical examples, by Nancy 3. Hoffman.

ONE ISLAND FAMILY NEWS- As a follow up to our September newsletter, here is the “contact list” mentioned in my President’s message. If you are not currently active with our programs and planning we’re asking you to step up and tell us where you could give some time and attention to OIF. We can make this work even from your home during the pandemic! Thanks, Marilyn Smith
