

MYEP is honored to receive another four-year Accreditation in Person-centered Excellence from the Council on Quality and Leadership! Thank you to CQL and all who participated in the virtual accreditation process.

MYEP looks forward to our continued partnership with CQL as we remain committed to providing person-centered supports that increase the quality of life for the people we support.

"MYEP is a non-profit organization dedicated to providing advocacy and person-centered services which facilitate personal growth and community inclusion to people with disabilities."
