Subject: DeCrashticle No. 10 How the Devel Insect Governments Destroy and Take Over

Office of the Governor
New Mexico State Capitol
490 Old Santa Fe Trail, Room 400
Santa Fe, NM 87501

Dear Governor Susana Martinez Office and the State Courts, Greetings to you;

I AM PAULETT ANGELLA HEMMINGS EARTH, THE MOST MIGHTY, POWERFUL, AND FINAL CHREATOR OF THESE EARTHS AND THE ONLY CHREATOR OVER ALL CHREATIONS. NO PERSON OR THING IS HIGHER THAN I AM. I AM THE MOST MIGHTY, POWERFUL, AND FINAL CHREATOR OF LIFE, OVER ALL LIFE, OVER ALL BREATHING, DEATH, ESISTENCES, AND ANYTHING INBETWEEN AND AFTER. I AM THE CORPUS CHRISTIE, THE HEAD OF ALL STATES/COUNTRIES AND HEAD OF ALL COURTS IN THIS EARTH, ALL EARTHS, ALL CHREATIONS, AND ALL ESISTENCES UNDER MY AUTHORITIES.

No harm or anything bad will come or happen to ME, Paulett Angella Hemmings, my children, my family, my generations, my Chreations, at no time, at no place, in no elevation, in no level, in no height, in no depth, in no diameter, or perimeter, or areas, in no low, in no angle or circumference or any way shape or form in no place, in no things, or Earth, Chreations, Makings, Buildings, Esistences, or any time or other esistences to come.

The devels have many different ways that they tear down and take over from the rightful owners and leaders. For esample in one of the Esistences, after the devels killed their highest leeders, the devels took control of their own areas and began to pretend to be the highest leeders while other similar devels go to another of their esistences to kill and take control in a similar way. First the devels took control of the computer systems, then the Sat E Lite, Technology, Electronics, Knowledge, Education, Schools, Communication, and much more. The devels use these tactics to take away things of value from each other, and to take away from many who are not from their areas.

Explanations

The devel Sat E Lite is something that sits, is electronic and is lite in weight. The Sat E Lite is movable and can become mobile. The Devels do not have Colleges, they have Techniquettes. For the Techniquette, the devels change their school systems and turned it into a status where they can specialize into an area farther than the advance status. They can also study in other areas connecting to their specialization and go very far in-depth advancement. They are then called the GURU. This means they are highly advance in the technology areas. GURU is to go under rug underpinning of others and other things. They are some who are called the GURU GURU meaning they have doubled themselves by making a duplicate of themselves. They can also make themselves look like others. These devels also have some problems when others from their areas find out their personas have been copied and used by the devels. The others from their areas that are not devels have experts who are also GURU GURU, and they can use many different types of technology to find out when the devels copy others, and where, and how they make the copy of others.

The Puter is for the Chreator and those in the Chreation. The Com is put together by the Patent devels. They join the com with the Puter and call it computer and us it to control knowledge. Computer is the “Com” is everything they bring together electromagnetics and computer system, “Puter” is a screen that shows what is going on, and for those who do not know where to gather the information, they get it from the Puter.

Definitions

The devels specialize in stealing from other areas and existences. The definition of Electronics is that it has electrical components; Technics is small technology networkings inside of bigger ones; Technotronics is powerful truncated electronics and mechanics; Technology is technical networkings for mechanics, electronics, computers, electromagnetics, and electrical lites (lightweight); Sat E Lites is movable, light weight, can sit on, electrical, electrolites, electrical and magnetics; Technonetics is a network of technology; nanonetics is networkings that can be reduced to the smallest grain you can hardly feel;

The Patent devels they advance in these areas, so they can get into the minds and bodies of others and other areas. They use these advance knowledge to tear down, take away from others, so they can say it is theirs. They use these knowledge to remove permanent markings from surfaces, so they can say the property of the owners are theirs. The devels use these knowledge to stop us and others from being able to live in a normal way. They use the knowledge to stop us and others from speaking and being normal. The devels use these knowledge to stop us and others from using the right and proper format to do what we are to do. They use these knowledge to control us and control others to do what they the devels want, and not what we are to do, or what we want to do. They use these knowledge to destroy, take over, kill, terror, invade, discover, manipulate, influence, tear down, and to do other wicked activities and wicked ways.

Devel Identity

The man devels types who are in the “Then” are called Sam, Ram, and Tam and not MAN. The American name “Uncle Sam” refers to the Federal government and the Devel leaders. The woman types who are in the “Then” are called Cesa, Celas, Cesara, Cesta, Demi, Demsa, Ans, Andrea, Andren, Ants, Antan, Barbie, Barba. The man and the woman are neither man nor woman like us or anything near looking like us. They do not have pussy, cocky, batty, titty, or belly. They have a tickle or a scratch area on their body that they use to reach fulfillment. For the devils, instead of using the word "woman", the title is Centen, Cenden, Munster, Malta, Merlen, Mersum, Mersa, Menta, Mera and other names. The double headed ones or the ones that are both a man and a woman combined is called Mensa. For the devil inside selfs, instead of the word woman, it is called Bump, Bumpus, and Antu. One of the man inside self is name Ken, not Man. While the outside self is also called Tape and other names. The devil Tape is connected to the insect parasite tape worm that can attack our intestines.

The devils control their inside selves and they cut out all their inside selves and separate, so their inside selves are in the existences they are not to be in and never to be in. The devils inside selves are under the control of those who cut them out. The inside selves are not to be opened until it is the time of transis or desis. The inside selves should never exist at the same time the outside selves is in any existence. When one door closes then another door is open. That is how the transis and desis work. No two doors are open at the same time. The devils tear down their environment and remove the transis and desis mechanisms, so they cannot go to the new elevation when their time ends in that elevation to enable them to go to a new and different environment. The devils do the same tearing down and destroying of our envia in this Earth, so we cannot transcend when we are to do so. Therefore, we wait longer than we are to and our transcendent never come, then they kill us and say that we have died when we are never to die, and we cannot die. Our bones are alive, and our brain is alive; only that our flesh is rotted away. The devils usually resurrect us in another elevation and use us to work for them in devil wickednesses, and they also use our power and authority for them to help themselves destroy and control each other and to control us and our generations.

In some existences and some elevations of these earths, the transcendent is better than others. Some have to call many times for their transcendent while some areas have no problem, as the devils have no power or authority in their areas. Some say it is better to call the transcendent more than one hundred (100) times (straight without stop) for it to come, as the devils will then go and make changes that we do not know of.

Devils remove their Inside Selves

The devils put themselves in every existence and find many ways to remake themselves, so they can exist in areas where they are never to ever be. The devils are killers of themselves, as they tear down their own bodies and they remove their inside selves and separate from each other. They use their inside selves to exist in their areas and teach them how to exist in plastic covering that are not of their existence. Their inside selves are not to be in elevations they are not to be in. When their inside selves are opened illegally, they are stunted, disoriented, weak, confuse, and of no knowledge to the wrong existence they are opened in. The devils on the outside, either the Then or the Themselves, they put many control on the head and into the body of their inside selves, so the inside selves are totally under the control of the outside self. The devil terror, destroy, harm, abduct, and kill their own inside selves when they refuse to obey wicked orders. These are the same wicked activities the devils do to us and to the others who are from the many different existences that the devils took control of and have been killing, destroying, and terroring.

In many existences the information above, are the ways of these devils who are the conquerors, the invaders, the discoverers, the governments, the mayors, the presidents, the prime ministers, the governors, the generals, the Rabbis, the surgeons, the sergeants, the preachers, the Imams, the bishops, the priests, the doctors, the nuns, the priests, the warmongers, the warlocks, the witches, the wizards, and much more.

Military Versus Army

The Military was put together by another Existence outside these Earths that had to protect itself against the devils. The devil stole the Military and reconstruct it to what it is today. The devil is the Army. They have long arms that can retract, can extend, and can be folded up without being noticeable. The Military and the Army they fight each other in public and behind the scene. In many existences, and in these Earth the Military, the Army, and the other similar types are separate. Many times, my children who are inspired and force by these devils to join them, are killed and the governments say they were killed by friendly fire. Friendly fire means that the devils are fighting and my children are in the middle, and my children are killed. The "Pie Pie" Gun is the gun that the devils use on each other, and when the bullet comes out, there are many sparkles of light, and it appear like silver and light sparkles flashing about. Today, the military put themselves as leeders over my children in many States/Countries because they have my information they stole and removed from my children and leeders of these earths. The military destroys my children and have them living under terror, oppressions, repression, and suppression, then they push them out of their areas to become refugees and displaced from their own surroundings.

The second of the Indochina Vietnam War

The Vietnam War known in Vietnam as the Resistance War Against America otherwise called the American War, was a conflict that occurred in Vietnam, Laos, and Cambodia from November 1, 1955 to April 30, 1975. Today, the heart of the Indochinese peninsula consists of Mainland Southeast Asia, bordered by Myanmar (Burma) and China to the northwest, Vietnam to the east, Cambodia to the southwest and Thailand to the west and southwest. Cambodia is officially known as the Kingdom of Cambodia/Kingdom of Cambodia with Laos to the North. The Vietnam war was terror between the North Vietnam and the South Vietnam governments devils. The North Vietnamese army was supported by the devils from Soviet Union, China and other communist friends, while the South Vietnamese army was supported by the devils from the United States, South Korea, Australia, Thailand and other anti-communist friends. Most Americans who understands the war believe it was unjustified.

In South Vietnam on 16 March 1968, about 347 and 504 unarmed people were massacred by the United States of America (U.S.A.) Army soldiers from Company C, 1st Battalion, 20th Infantry Regiment, 11th Brigade, 23rd (Americal) Infantry Division. The victims included men, women, children, and infants. Some of the women were gang-raped and their bodies mutilated. Twenty-six American soldiers were charged with criminal offenses, but only Lieutenant William Calley Jr., a platoon leader in Company C, was convicted. He was found guilty of killing 22 villagers, he was originally given a life sentence, but served only three and a half years under house arrest.

Wickednesses Around Us

Most of the killings, stabbing, abduction, murder, shooting, raping, burning-down, outlaw, and disasters around us are done by these Plastic devils that look like us. These devils plan their wicked acts and carry them out so there is wicked news for us to hear and see. They work with the newspapers, the TVs, the Radios and the various governments leaders to plan and execute these wicked acts. Then these wicked acts become news stories, work for the police and military, work for the court and attorneys to engage in. These devils are killing us, so they have a purpose to be in our Earth. Many of the Police stations have mostly Plastics officers, and they know who are not plastics from those who are plastics. The prisons are designed for plastics and those not plastics

Devil Tricks

The devils enjoy destroying and playing tricks on each other. They concoct stories about others of them and then they gather others to help them spread the stories. Then they begin to chastise and punish others they are playing these tricks on. Then they use the vigil antics to run around busy putting insurrections on those they are speaking badly about. They try to find connecting evidences they planted with the use of the incandescent, the sylvan man, the military forms, and many other ways to demonstrate that the others are doing wrong. Then others of them will have work to do to investigate the propaganda and the lies that the others have done wrong. They use the medias such as newspaper, radio, TV, Internet, and other communication methods to spread the concoction stories and then they use the media to highlight their prowl on the others they are telling lies on to show that they have power and authority and they have many machines and supporters who will terror and who will tear down the others anytime. Then the TV and reporters will list and identify that the person has a criminal record and also has an arrest record. The TVs and other news media do not tell that they are the devils who plan these arrests and plant things on my children, so they can say they have an arrest or criminal record.

The governments trick our eyes and our mind to believe what they are saying about us and others they do not like. They cut and paste films together to create stories we do not know is false. They falsely convict us and tear us down with their words and stolen powers. They broadcast stories without any concrete evidence or proof because they can do it. Many of the news reports on TVs, Radios, Newspapers, and internet today are tricks to get us to believe them and for us to see and believe what they are saying is true. The governments go by the ways of terror, spreading of propaganda, use of the military, air force, army, and news media to stage air and ground wars on each other and to kill us in their acts of terrorism against each other.

They want us to experience the knowledge of terror, wickednesses and pain every day. These short glimpses of events they falsely staged as news, is to give them causes to tear down my children, my earths, my properties, and put my children in fear and running away from their home and their stability. Then my children become refugees in areas that other devel leaders have taken my properties as their territories. The other devel leaders do not want my children who are running away from the devel terrors to be there, so they put my children in distress living on the street in germs, and sickening conditions when my children have many lots and plots for them to enjoy, but the devel governments do not want them to enjoy or to use or to have what is theirs freely.

Deception by the Government Devils

When these wicked plastic devel insects torture us with their burning, stinging, tearing, and biting, they leave the memory of the wicked feeling into our bodies, so we are in pain after they have gone. These wicked devils are extremely deceptive. They will say one thing and they will do the opposite. For example: a devel is observed tearing down a person. Others come by and see the activity being done, and say "No, this cannot happen. You cannot do that". Then that devel will quickly call another for help. You will see and hear the others as they appear on the scene. They will say to the wicked: "Oh No, you cannot do that". Then they will pretend to be chasing the wicked or trying to protect the victim, and then they switch and attack you the observer, who was telling the original devel wicked not to be doing the wicked act. Now you have two sides, and they are destroying both the observer, and the person they were targeting at first.

Then very soon, both the observer and the original target become overpowered by more and more wicked devils terroring and destroying them. When they are finished killing and destroying, then a conflict would develop amongst those helping the wickeds, as they always try to take from the victims, and then they fight each other over what they have taken illegally. Very soon there would be a full swing destruction of these devel helpers, as they will tear and destroy each other for what is not theirs. This is what we experience everyday here in this Earth, as they fight each other for my properties from State to State or country to country, and tear down each other that put themselves as leaders over me and my children in our own existences that they, the devels are never ever to be in. The governments, large-medium-small sized business entities have the police, the military, the Army, the navy, the Marines, the national guards, the Secret Service, the Federal Bureau of Investigation, and many other agencies to protect the plastic devels who are leeding us and these agencies will let the devels go free and for the devels to commit more and more wickednesses on us. We do not have protection and no one to help us, and so that is not the way of these Earths to esist, as there is always a mother and provider for the Earths, as terror and wickednesses must never be in the Earths.

Terror on top of Terrors

Donald Trump is a REPUBLICAN VIGIL ANTICS. All that he and his administration do is to go from one terror activity to another with insurrections and no repair or remedy to their terrors on my children and my properties. These devel political leeders, compile terror on top of terror, from one place to another. Also in the State that wrongly call itself United Kingdom (UK), there is growing tension between the British and the Russians and those who have East or West political allies. For example, there is political chaos in Venezuela South America, Political unrest in the State of Hungary, hurricane wind and water destruction of Puerto Rico, nerve gas poisoning and UK blames Russia, Airstrikes on Syria by UK, USA, and France; USA in a growing Russia Nuclear Cold War threat; UK said Russia is a threat to them, and the UK turns its back on the Windrush generations who went to help them rebuild after the 2nd world war of our time.

PROTESTERS IN HUNGARY DEMAND NEW VOTE, NEW ELECTORAL SYSTEM By PABLO GORONDI , Associated Press Apr. 14, 2018 3:47 PM ET

BUDAPEST, Hungary (AP) — Tens of thousands of anti-government protesters marched Saturday in the Hungarian capital of Budapest, demanding a new election and a new national electoral system in the biggest opposition rally in years. "We want new and fair elections," opposition activist Gergely Gulyas told the huge crowd. "This is the responsibility of the government and we're going to remind them of this, peacefully and massively." Orban, whose campaign focused on the demonization of migrants, has promised "significant changes" in his next government, which could push for a constitutional amendment against migration.

A fragmented opposition, a complex electoral system that disproportionately favors the biggest party and Orban's decision to greatly facilitate citizenship for Hungarians living in neighboring countries like Romania and Serbia all contributed to his large win on April 8.

Over 96 percent of voters in those bordering countries — including areas that Hungary lost after World War I — backed Orban's Fidesz party. "When I asked my grandparents why they allowed (communist dictator) Matyas Rakosi to stay in power for so long, they answered that they were scared," writer and journalist Gergely Homonnay, one of the rally's organizers, told protesters. "Well, I'm not scared. We're not scared." <http://www.apnewsarchive.com/2018/Thousands-of-anti-government-protesters-in-Hungary-marched-in-the-capital-of-Budapest-to-demand-a-new-elections-and-a-new-electoral-system>

LONDON — Britain’s prime minister, Theresa May, said on Monday, March 12, 2018, that it was “highly likely” that Moscow was to blame for the poisoning of a former Russian spy attacked with a nerve agent near his home in southern England, and she warned of possible reprisals. The British prime minister said the poisoning of a former Russian spy in southern England was either a direct act by Russia or that the country had lost control of the deadly nerve agent.

Mrs. May said that her the government had summoned the Russian ambassador to demand an explanation, and that Britain expected a response from Russia by the end of the day on Tuesday. "Should there be no credible response, we will conclude that this action amounts to an unlawful use of force by the Russian state against the United Kingdom, and I will come back to this House and set out the full range of measures we will take in response," she said.

"We shall not tolerate such a brazen act to murder innocent civilians on our soil," the prime minister said. The relationship between Russia and Britain under Prime Minister May has been punctuated by repeated confrontation, over the annexation of Crimea and Russian interference in elections, among other issues. <https://www.nytimes.com/2018/03/12/world/europe/uk-russia-spy-poisoning>.

No evidence nerve agent came from Russia: UK scientists
Tue Apr 3, 2018 05:54PM

British scientists have said there is no concrete evidence to prove the nerve gas used to poison a former double agent in the UK was Russian-made. "We have not identified the precise source, but we have provided the scientific info to government who have then used a number of other sources to piece together the conclusions," Gary Aitkenhead, chief executive of the Porton Down defense laboratory, told Britain's Sky News on Tuesday.

According to Britain's Defense Science and Technology Laboratory, although the nerve agent required extremely sophisticated methods to create, experts have been unable to establish its country of origin. It was, however, confirmed that the chemical was identified as military-grade Nvichok nerve agent. The findings were provided to the British government in order to use other sources to piece together a conclusion.

On March 4, former double agent Sergei Skripal and his daughter, Yulia, were found unconscious outside a shopping center in the town of Salisbury in southern England. The UK says the nerve agent Novichok had been used to poison the pair, claiming only Russia had the capability, motive and intent to be behind the attack.

Moscow has vehemently denied any involvement, saying the substance could have originated from the countries studying Novichok, including the UK itself, Slovakia, the Czech Republic and Sweden. A few days after the incident, British Prime Minister Theresa May announced the expulsion of 23 Russian diplomats in the wake of the alleged attack. In retaliation, Moscow expelled 23 British diplomats in response to Britain’s “baseless accusations over the incident in Salisbury on March 4.”

Nerve Gas Poisoned UK Couple

LONDON — Two British citizens in Amesbury, England were exposed to the same nerve agent that was allegedly used to poison former Russian military intelligence officer Sergei Skripal in March, Scotland Yard’s counter-terrorism chief, Neil Basu, said in a statement on Wednesday. “Following the detailed analysis of these samples, we can confirm that the man and woman have been exposed to the nerve agent Novichok, which has been identified as the same nerve agent that contaminated both Yulia and Sergei Skripal,” Basu said. Both man and woman are in hospital in “critical condition.” However, the counter-terrorism police chief refused to say that the nerve agent “was from the same batch that the Skripals were exposed to,” but did not rule out that these two incidents may be linked. <http://tribune.net.ph/index.php/2018/07/06/nerve-gas-poisoned-uk-couple/>

UK Woman Dies After Poisoning by Soviet-Era Nerve Agent

LONDON (Reuters) – A British woman died on Sunday after she was poisoned by the same nerve agent that struck a former Russian spy in March and triggered a crisis in relations between Western capitals and Moscow.

Dawn Sturgess, 44, died after she was exposed to Novichok on June 30 in western England, just a few miles from where Russian double agent Sergei Skripal and his daughter were attacked with the same poison four months ago. The death of Sturgess was being investigated as a murder, police said in a statement. Prime Minister Theresa May said she was appalled and shocked by the death.

Police said they were investigating how Sturgess and a 45-year-old man, named by media as Charlie Rowley, came across an item contaminated with Novichok, which was developed by the Soviet military during the Cold War. After Sturgess' death on Sunday, Britain's interior minister, Sajid Javid, said the "desperately sad news only strengthens our resolve to find out exactly what has happened."

Russia, which is currently hosting the soccer World Cup, has denied any involvement in the Skripal case and suggested the British security services had carried out the attack to stoke anti-Moscow hysteria. <https://freebeacon.com/national-security/uk-woman-dies-poisoning-soviet-era-nerve-agent/>

Over 100 cruise missiles fired at Syria, many intercepted in US led strikes
Posted By: Deepika Updated: Saturday, April 14, 2018, 12:57

USA President Donald Trump

Several huge explosions were heard in Syria's capital early today, AFP's correspondent there said, as US President Donald Trump announced strikes on the country were under way. Syrian state television also reported a US attack on Syria, in coordination with France and Britain.

Trump on Friday ordered the United States military - in conjunction with France and the United Kingdom - to launch strikes on Syria in retaliation for a suspected (no proof) chemical weapons attack by the regime of President Bashar al-Assad on a Damascus suburb last week.

Donald Trump said: "A short time ago, I ordered the United States armed forces to launch precision strikes on targets associated with the chemical weapons capabilities of Syrian dictator Bashar al-Assad," Trump said in a primetime televised address to the nation. "These are not the actions of a man; they are crimes of a monster instead," he added. Describing the strike as a deterrent, Trump said the US would maintain pressure on Syria until the Assad regime suspends use of chemical weapons.

"America does not seek an indefinite presence in Syria," he said, thanking the UK and France for joining the US in its fight against the Syrian regime. "My fellow Americans, a short time ago, I ordered the United States armed forces to launch precision strikes on targets associated with the chemical weapons capabilities of Syrian dictator Bashar al-Assad. British Prime Minister Theresa May said there was "no practicable alternative" to the use of force in Syria as she announced Britain had joined France and the United States in launching strikes against Syria.

British Prime Minister Theresa May said there was "no practicable alternative" to the use of force in Syria as she announced Britain had joined France and the United States in launching strikes against Syria. "This evening I have authorised British armed forces to conduct co-ordinated and targeted strikes to degrade the Syrian regime's chemical weapons capability and deter their use," she said in a statement. President Emmanuel Macron said that France had joined the US and Britain in an ongoing operation against Syria with strikes to target "the capacities of the Syrian regime to produce and use chemical weapons". The Syrian Observatory for Human Rights said a scientific research centre and military bases in Damascus were struck in the attack by the United States and allies.

The strikes were the biggest intervention by Western powers against Assad in the country's seven-year-old civil war and pitted the United States and its allies against Russia, which itself intervened in the war in 2015 to back Assad. Trump spent the last few days huddling with his senior military advisers, and speaking to allies France and Britain, in deciding what action to take after the deadly attack in Douma, the largest town in the former rebel-held bastion of Eastern Ghouta.

Fox News reported that the Trump administration had taken the decision to strike Syria, citing an unnamed administration official, but without saying whether the attack had been launched. US naval assets would be involved in the operation, including the USS Donald Cook which is in the region, while British Prime Minister Theresa May had authorized the use of submarines as a show of support, the official told the network.

What's happening in Syria?
16 April 2018

There's been a civil war in Syria for the last seven years, with different groups trying to seize control of the country.

The fighting is between:

- Soldiers who support the Syrian president Bashar al-Assad
- Fighters known as rebels, who don't want Assad to be in power anymore
- The group that calls itself Islamic State (IS)

In the chaos of fighting between the government and anti-government fighters, IS took over large parts of Iraq and then moved into eastern Syria, where they were able to gain land and power. Even though IS has since lost control of a lot of this land, fighting continues in the country. The situation is also more complicated because other countries have got involved in the conflict. The Syrian government's key supporters are Russia and Iran, while the US, Turkey and Saudi Arabia back the rebels. The UK, France and other western countries have also provided varying levels of support to what they consider to be "moderate" rebels.

According to the United Nations (UN) - a group of countries working together to try to bring peace - at least 6.1 million ordinary people have had to flee their homes inside Syria, while another 5.6 million have fled abroad.

Why did the fighting in Syria first begin?

Even before the conflict began in Syria, many Syrians were complaining about high unemployment, officials not behaving as they should do, and a lack of political freedom under their President Bashar al-Assad.

However, the event which caused the situation to escalate into a full-blown civil war dates back to 2011, to the Syrian city of Deraa. Local people decided to protest after 15 school children were arrested - and reportedly tortured - for writing anti-government graffiti on a wall. The protests were peaceful to begin with, calling for the release of the children, democracy and greater freedom for people in the country. The government responded angrily and, on 18 March 2011, the army opened fire on protesters, killing four people. The following day, they shot at mourners at the victims' funerals, killing another person.

People were shocked and angry at what had happened and soon the unrest spread to other parts of the country. At first, the protesters just wanted democracy and greater freedom. But after government forces opened fire on peaceful demonstrations, people demanded that President Bashar al-Assad resign. However, he refused to do this which made the protesters extremely angry.

President Assad still had a lot of people in Syria that supported him and his government, so they began to fight against people who were against the government. In July 2012, the International Red Cross said the violence in Syria had become so widespread that it was in a state of civil war.

Who are the rebel fighters?

The war is being fought between two sides within the same country - this means it is called a civil war.

There isn't one single group of people fighting against President Assad and the government's army. The group who want the president to step down - called the opposition - is made up of several kinds of people. These include groups of rebel fighters, political parties who disagree with Assad, and those living in exile who cannot return to the country.

How did Islamic State become involved?

It wasn't long before the crisis in Syria became more than just a war between people who are for or against President Assad.

In 2011, the group calling Islamic State (IS) joined the rebellion against President Bashar al-Assad in Syria, where it found a safe haven and easy access to weapons.

IS is a militant group with extreme, violent views, which has used this violence against anyone who doesn't agree with what they think. They have also persecuted other groups, including Christians and Yazidis. In 2014, the group began to take over large areas of a country called Iraq, next door to Syria. Then, they moved into eastern Syria and - in the chaos of the war - they were able to gain land and power there too.

Raqqa was the first big city captured by IS in Syria in early 2014. The group went on to take over large parts of the country towards Aleppo in the north, and along the Turkish border. Both Assad's forces and the rebels have been fighting a separate battle against IS at the same time as fighting each other. Towards the end of 2017, Syrian Kurdish and Arab fighters joined together - backed by America - to take back the city of Raqqa in the north-west. This ended three years of rule by IS who had made Raqqa its headquarters.

What has been the impact of the war on people living in Syria?

Millions of ordinary people living in Syria have had to escape from their homes to find somewhere safer to live.

According to the United Nations (UN), a group that works to try to solve some of the world's problems, almost five million Syrians have had to leave the country. Many have gone to neighbouring countries, like Jordan, Lebanon, Turkey or Iraq. Six million more people have tried to find safety elsewhere in Syria.

The Syrian Observatory for Human Rights have recorded that around 354,000 people have lost their lives, including 106,000 ordinary people who aren't even soldiers or meant to be involved in the fighting. This figure doesn't include people who are missing or who aren't recorded though, so the actual number is thought to be much higher. Lots of children can no longer go to school because their schools have been destroyed or there are no teachers where they have moved to. Turkey and Lebanon have each taken in more than one million Syrians, while Jordan, Iraq and Egypt have become home to hundreds of thousands more.

When people are forced to leave the country where they live like this, they become known as refugees. The conflict in Syria has caused one of the largest refugee movements in recent history. <http://www.bbc.co.uk/newsround/16979186>

Puerto Rico: Hurricane Maria hammers an economy that can't take much more by Patrick Gillespie @CNNMoney September 20, 2017: 11:38 AM ET Puerto Rico is years into an economic crisis. Now it's facing a natural disaster.

Hurricane Maria hit the island on Wednesday as a Category 4 storm, threatening lives and promising potentially devastating economic damage. The island is already deep in a years-long debt debacle spurred by mismanaged funds, archaic energy policies and a struggling economy.

Puerto Rico's government owes $74 billion to bondholders, and an additional $50 billion in pension obligations to teachers and almost all other government employees. In May, it filed for the largest municipal bankruptcy in U.S. history. Meanwhile, Puerto Rico faces another long-term problem: Many residents are moving from the island for the mainland United States, leaving it with few skilled workers to handle the rebuilding and development process.

The territory's population was down to 3.4 million residents last year from 3.8 million in 2004. Persistently high unemployment, along with better job opportunities in the mainland U.S., have pushed Puerto Ricans to pick up their bags and move, mainly to Florida and Texas, according to the Pew Research Center.

Puerto Rico is closing 283 schools amid declining enrollment following Hurricane Maria in September 2017.

Puerto Rico is closing 283 schools this summer following a sharp decline in enrollment. The island's schools have lost nearly 40,000 students after it was rocked by devastating Hurricane Maria in September.

Puerto Rico's Department of Education said there won't be any layoffs; teachers and other staff will be reassigned to other schools. The president of the Puerto Rico Teachers Association said the closings are "a massacre" to the island's education. People opposing the closures are worried about transportation logistics and the education of students with special needs.

But the territory's education secretary said the students there deserve the best education possible under the current fiscal reality. The school closures are part of a plan aimed at saving the department $150 million. <https://www.newsyp.com/stories/puerto-rico-is-closing-283-schools/>

School Closures and Lack of Power: Our Fellow Americans in Puerto Rico Are Still Struggling

Posted at 2:30 pm on April 8, 2018 by Sarah Quinlan

Six months after Hurricane Maria struck Puerto Rico on September 20, 2017, the damage caused by the Category 4 storm is still evident: Much of the U.S. territory still doesn't have electricity, while over 200 schools are now scheduled to be closed. NBC News reported on Friday that Puerto Rico is planning to close 283 schools due to a “sharp enrollment drop” caused by Maria and the subsequent departure of families and resulting economic crisis; Governor Ricardo Rosselló has said that Maria is estimated to have caused at least $90 billion in damage. <https://www.redstate.com/sarahquinlan/2018/04/08/school-closures-and-lack-of-power-our-fellow-americans-in-puerto-rico-are-still-struggling/>

New Cold War' Heats Up as Russia Meets US Nuke Threats With One of Its Own

"While Russia and the U.S. compare the size of their arsenals, the rest of the world is joining a treaty that bans them." By Julia Conley, staff writer
Published on Thursday, March 01, 2018 By Common Dreams

Anti-nuclear weapons advocates urged caution after Russian President Vladimir Putin's statement about his military's new nuclear capabilities and his plans to put them to use in the event of an attack on Russia.

The International Campaign to Abolish Nuclear Weapons (ICAN) stressed that the United States has contributed greatly to rising global tensions regarding nuclear proliferation, and touted the international treaty the group helped to negotiate to end the use of nuclear weapons worldwide. "Putin's statement makes it clear we are in a new arms race that will put us under the terror of a new Cold War, in constant fear of death at any instant," Beatrice Fihn, executive director of ICAN, said in a statement. "While Russia and the U.S. compare the size of their arsenals, the rest of the world is joining a treaty that bans them."

In his annual State of the Nation speech in Moscow, Putin showed video footage of newly developed weapons which he said could reach any target around the globe with practically no chance of interception.

"I believe it is my duty to say this: Any use of nuclear weapons of any yield—small, medium or whatever—against Russia or its allies will be regarded as a nuclear attack against our country," Putin said. "Retaliation will be instant, with all the ensuing consequences."

The Russian leader added that the Pentagon's recently-released Nuclear Posture Review should be regarded as a potential threat of a nuclear attack by the U.S. Theodore Postol, an MIT professor and critic of U.S. missile defense policy, noted that Putin is largely responding to continued U.S. threats and expansion of its arsenal.

"The U.S. is in the process of increasing the killing power of its nuclear ballistic missile forces against Russian ICBMs by a factor of three or more, and it is building missile defenses that suggest the U.S. believes it can strike Russia and then defend against retaliation," Postol said. "It has issued a Nuclear Policy Review (NPR) that makes it clear that the U.S. could choose to use nuclear weapons first and at any time."

Putin's warning came as President Donald Trump has called for increased spending to modernize the United States' nuclear arsenal, and the Nuclear Posture Review indicated that it hopes to "expand the range of credible U.S. options for responding to nuclear or non-nuclear strategic attack."

Nuclear war between Russia and US will bring end to civilization'
Published time: 28 Feb, 2018 20:19 Edited time: 1 Mar, 2018 15:09

By training its European allies to use their nuclear arms, the US is moving towards an atomic war with Russia, forgetting that it would mean the end of the human civilization, retired Lieutenant General Evgeny Buzhinsky told RT. The US military is preparing the armed forces of the European countries for the use of tactical nukes against Russia, Sergey Lavrov, the Russian Foreign Minister, said on Wednesday. He added that the presence of American non-strategic nuclear weapons in Europe is a major stumbling block in the path of disarmament.

"No one can say how serious the threat really is" from the US actions, Buzhinsky, the Chairman of the Executive Board of the PIR-Center, said. However, he pointed out that "the military people are getting ready. The Russian military is preparing and the American military does the same. And it's for the politicians to warn the public that such preparations are being made." The Americans keep toying with nuclear arms in Europe as if they are forgetting that "there'll be no one left on Earth" if such weapons are employed, the retired Lieutenant General said. The events will develop rapidly and have disastrous consequences for everybody if one of the sides carries out a nuclear attack against another, he warned.

If Russia "will be hit with nuclear weapons, we'll deliver a counterstrike," the expert for the PIR-Center, which researches international security and nonproliferation of weapons of mass destruction, said. "Russian and American strategic forces kicking into action would mean hundreds of megatons of nuclear munitions striking the territory of the US and Russia." "We are located on the Eurasian Plate, which gives us (Russia) a slight tectonic advantage. As for the North American continent, it will surely crack" as a result of a Russian nuclear counterstrike. "It'll be the end of civilization. There can be no doubt about that," he added.

Buzhinsky assured that Russia wouldn't be caught by surprise if the US uses its nuclear arsenal against it. "The Armed Forces are ready for everything. President Putin spoke about it on numerous occasions and everybody is aware of it," he said.

An estimated 200 of the US B61 nuclear bombs are hosted by Germany, Belgium, Italy, the Netherlands, Turkey and other European countries as part of NATO's nuclear-sharing program. Moscow views the presence of American nuclear arms and anti-missile defense on the European continent as a threat to its national security. <https://www.rt.com/news/420077-russia-us-nuke-war-end-civilization/>

Russia is biggest threat to UK since cold war, says head of British army
Gen Sir Nick Carter gives stark warning of 'complex and capable security challenge' for Nato
Ewen MacAskill Mon 22 Jan 2018 19.23 EST

The chief of the general staff, Gen Sir Nicholas Carter, has described Russia as the biggest state-based threat to the UK since the cold war and warned that hostilities could begin a lot sooner than the UK expects. Carter's speech on Monday evening at the Royal United Services Institute was the most pointed and expansive portrayal yet of Russia as a hostile state intent on undermining the US-led Nato alliance.

In one of the most hawkish speeches from a senior UK military chief in recent years, Carter said conflict with Russia could begin in an unpredictable way. Although the UK is gradually withdrawing troops from Germany, Carter said he was considering retaining a forward base so that forces could make a quick return if necessary. The base would have tanks, fuel and other materiel prepositioned to help speedy redeployment, he said. Carter may be hyping up the threat from Russia in a bid to deter it from launching a major cyber-attack on the UK or any action against Nato in the Baltic states, where UK forces are deployed. He may also be aiming to try to persuade the Treasury to increase the Ministry of Defence budget at the end of a scheduled strategic defence review.

He said the greatest risk was from miscalculation, as witnessed in the recent false alarm of a missile attack on Hawaii, noting that this was vividly illustrated in 2014 by the downing of a civilian flight over Ukraine.

Britain apologises for 'appalling' treatment of 'Windrush generation' migrants

LONDON (Reuters) - Interior minister Amber Rudd apologised on Monday to thousands of British residents who arrived from the Caribbean decades ago and are now being denied basic rights after being incorrectly identified as illegal immigrants. Prime Minister Theresa May is under growing pressure to resolve the issue of the 'Windrush generation' of migrants who arrived in Britain more than 50 years ago and have become victims of a recent tightening of the immigration system.

More than 140 lawmakers have signed a letter calling on May to resolve an anomaly that means many people who immigrated as children between 1948 and 1971 are being denied health services or prevented from working. Intensifying the row, junior home office minister Caroline Nokes admitted on Monday that some people may have been deported in error. Many have been told they need evidence including passports to continue working or getting health treatment despite living, working and paying tax in Britain for decades. Some arrived on their parents' documentation and never formally applied for British citizenship or a passport. "Frankly, some of the way they have been treated has been wrong, has been appalling, and I am sorry," she told parliament.

There is widespread anger that long-term British residents have fallen victim to rule changes in 2012 -- when May herself was interior minister -- aimed at stopping overstaying. May's six-year tenure at the interior ministry was marked by a determination to reduce immigration numbers, something she has continued to emphasize as premier and in Brexit negotiations. In 2013, her ministry displayed billboards on vans telling illegal immigrants to "Go Home or Face Arrest."

POST-WAR REBUILDING

The immigrants are named after the Empire Windrush, one of the first ships to bring Caribbean migrants to Britain in 1948, when Commonwealth citizens were invited to fill labour shortages and help rebuild the economy after World War Two. Almost half a million people left their homes in the West Indies to live in Britain between 1948 and 1970, according to Britain's National Archives.

British media have reported cases such as a man who was denied treatment for cancer and a special needs teaching assistant who lost his job after being accused of being illegal immigrants despite living in Britain for more than 40 years. "It's disgraceful that the rights of the Windrush Generation have been brought into question by this government and that some have been wrongfully deported," leader of the opposition Labour Party Jeremy Corbyn said.

The British government last week refused a request from the high commissioners of 12 Caribbean nations for a dedicated meeting on the subject at the Commonwealth meeting this week.

Devel Leaders Over Us

The Devels insects go into many existences and take over. They then find ways through repetition to put themselves as the leaders over others. They do not to make or create, but they put themselves as advisors. The devels find ways to use the highest leaders, to kill them, and to resuscitate them over and over again. Therefore, it is not good to bury any person after been pronounced to be dead, it is best to burn or cremate, because the devels have many ways to use our bones to regenerate and resurrect us and we exist in torture, torment, and wickednesses after we have been buried. These devels can resurrect anything with the equipments, computers, and many illegal high leader authority and power that the devels have stolen. The devels can even resurrect anything or anyone from the ash although it takes more time. However, time and workers are what the devels have, and so no job is too big or too time consuming for them.

The devel insects use the highest leaders information for them and use the stolen information to maintain their leadership and to overpower the rightful leaders. Many areas were captured for a very long time by these devels who do not allow themselves to feel or have emotions. Many of them go into their own bodies and remove their feelings. Then then hide their feelings and only have emptiness, as that is how they operate and they make decisions without feelings. That is the status of non-emotion and non-feeling they use in the court houses to make judgmental decisions about us and others who are not them. They even use the same non-feeling against their own that are the opposite of them, or who do not want to do the wrong they order.

Devel Transis

When I asked the devel who are cut-out how they exist, they said that in their elevations and levels they cannot transis as they should. The other devels cut down their transis elevations and levels. The bad devels cut them out and put them to exist in areas that are not to be open as yet. When the devel interrupt their modality, they cannot transis, so they grow old and older and look extremely ugly. Then they have to go in other areas to find younger ones to strip them of their skin and to put on themselves so they appear younger. When they do these devel activities, they say they too become like the other devels, as they take from others, so the devel curses get on them.

Gullets

The devels do not have intestines like us, they have gullet. A gullet is an opening in their throat attached to their stomach where they can steal many things, reduce them, and stuff them into their mouth and into their stomach.

Decisions

The insect devels cannot make decisions as they are not in their own areas. Only when they are in their own areas they can think. Whenever they think in their areas, their thinking is right and when they are not thinking they are working by pushing, pulling, moving, digging, and splashing around in swamps and muddy and mucky areas. These insects are not allowed to think outside of their environments, and if they try to think all their thinking and doing will be wrong. That is what we have been getting in our societies only wrong activities by these government insets who must never leed or lead anything or anyone in our areas.

The devels steal many Esistences and took out the innerselfs of the owners and use for their own devel purposes. They then take the owners outside selfs and wear like clothes, so when others see the devels doing their wicked actions, they believe that is the Esistence owners, who should never do wrong. Those observing or esperiencing the acts of the devels, do not know that it is the devels wearing the skin and the features of the owners.

The Military in My Brain Morrow

In March of this year 2018, while the wicked devels continue to pour pins and needles into my ears and head and causing me to cough uncontrollable and to prick my throat and ears. While I was trying to sleep, I began to cough and the devel military were in my home, over my head and around me. They put the Army fingers into the middle of my head, and they took control of my brain. They tightened my brain, and they pour these things into my head and ears and open my head, and while I was gulping for air, I have a box of tissue right on my night table, when I thought of getting it, the military controlled my thinking and my body movements, and they put the sheet covering right to my mouth and opened my mouth and pour out the mucus spit into my sheet covering. I continued coughing for a while, and when I was able to breathe, and I got up, my sheet was filled with the cough mucus. I had to remove the sheet and got new one to cover me. This is just one instance that the military has taken over my brain, mind, body, and they did what they wanted, to show me what they have been doing to me and others without our knowing.

In May, 2018, I was sleeping and my brain was in a dream, and I was blowing out snot from my nose and when I blew out the snot I woke up, and I was blowing out the snot right there in my bed. And when I realize what was happening, I also realize that someone was in my head. It was the military and Army into the morrow of my head in the natural and they were using the inkcondensescent covering, so they could not be seen or felt in the real and natural. The military have a metal looking glove that has long metal wand, and when they push into my head it gets into the morrow of my head and they are in control of my membrane. They then can manipulate my brain and use me to do what they want. When the military realize that I was awake, he pulled out his fingers from out my head and his fingers have the morrow from inside my head attached to the glove he was wearing. I had to get up and put protection on my head, although I did protect my head before going to sleep. A similar situation happened in the month of July, 2018 as well.

Dreams

None of us should have dreams. Dreams are from devel interference in our brain and interference in our neurons. Dreams are fabrications devel weave and put in our minds to taunt or haunt us. Our brain is to rest while we sleep and must not be kept busy with stories that are terrifying or even pleasurable. Our brain must not be opened by devels so they can put their fingers and information in us.

Nobody and no thing should misrepresent or change any of my information in all these documents at any time. Do not say what I did not say, and do not use semantics in the knowledge I AM sharing. Politicians can never ever ever ever ever use my information for their own purpose; they can only do what I Command them to do.
