

The March meeting of the Clinton County Board of Realtors was called to order by President Connie Gray. The Pledge of Allegiance was recited. The minutes of the last meeting were read and treasure report given with a motion to approve made by Robin Clifton, second by Ray Sarkees. Motion passed. The fund raising drawing was won by Steve Riehle and Bob stumped us all with trivia.

Under old business: The Day of Caring was attended by 133 people and money raised is currently at $2,010 with more expected to come in. A reminder that the Walk for Life is April 27th and Robin Norman is organizing a team for the board.

Under new business: We will again be host a county wide open house weekend the end of April. Members of the Wilmington News Journal will be contacting offices about advertising. The glitch suffered by the auditor site has been resolved and they are back on line.

The speakers of the day were from OAR.

A motion to adjourn was made by Ken Lundy.