

It is time to reach out to our Senator's and Congressional Representatives and tell them to:

Support USPS in next emergency stimulus!

“You are going to hear of wars and rumors of wars. See that you are not alarmed, because these things must take place, but the end is not yet.”

-Matthew 24:6

My entire career has been filled with rumors of the demise of the USPS. It has not happened because of the efforts of the NALC. Where many Agency Unions pass petitions to address issues, the NALC helps draft legislation and lobbies lawmakers in our best interest.

As letter carriers on the front lines of serving 160 million Americans and businesses every day, you know that the Covid-19 pandemic is something we have never experienced before. While our letter carriers show their resilience, strength, and continued service to the public every day, the Postal Service looms closer to shuttering due to the staggering loss in mail volume and revenue during this crisis. It's a desperate situation that only Congress and the Administration can help solve.

Unfortunately, instead of providing much needed immediate financial assistance urged by NALC and stakeholders the last stimulus gave the Postal Service a slap in the face by giving it access to a conditional line of credit. Those conditions are not new to letter carriers - as they seek to destroy the network and attack letter carriers at the behest of private shippers. This is not a solution. It is a way to weaken the Postal Service by riddling it with more debt to the point where opponents of the constitutionally mandated service will destroy it.

We cannot allow the USPS to fail.

Please take a minute to send a letter to your member of Congress and Senators telling them that we need: an immediate and significant injection of money - and secure, regular appropriations for the Postal Service until this crisis is over.

Go to NALC.org under the Government Affairs Tab click on Legislative Action Center and follow the instructions in the right column, login, then touch “Take Action” the template is there to send an email, letter, fax or call your Congressional Representative and Senator. The same can be done in the NALC Members Only AP.
