2020 Offense/Defense Analysis

Even though the Owls are just 5-20 under head coach Mike Bloomgren, they enter the 2020 season with some optimism. They won their final 3 games of 2019 and from what we can see, Bloomgren is building this program the right way. They've been remarkably consistent (see ATS stat below). Also note the Owls were No. 2 in the country in fewest penalties per game last year which is another data point that shows this is a well-coached team.

The offense does have some question marks in 2020. Wiley Green got several starts a year ago at QB, but Tom Stewart was more productive and he departs along with leading rusher Aston Walter (771 yards and 8 TD's). The Owls do have an exciting option at WR in the 6-foot-5 Brad Rozner who averaged 14.0 yards per catch and was 2nd-team All-CUSA.

The defense has a ton of experience coming back in 2020 including 10 starters The Owls actually rank No. 1 in Bill Connelly's returning production on defense (96%!). Keep an eye on LB Blaze Alldredge who was 1st-team All-CU-SA with 102 tackles and 21.5 total TFL's.

The schedule is manageable for the Owls as they will be favored in 3 games and they have a couple other games that are near toss-ups (home vs Army and Middle Tennessee). However, the Owls will need to have a QB and a RB emerge if they want to get to bowl eligibility for the first time since 2014.
