The Parade Company's March of the Big Heads Tour

The Parade Company's March of the Big Heads– Before they hit the pavement of Woodward Avenue, the floats of the 92nd America's Thanksgiving Parade are prepared in The Parade Company in Detroit. The company houses the largest collection of papier-mache heads and the extensive collection of costumes and characters from parades past. Then we will make our way across town to tour a historic building that was erected in 1898. The building has been reinvented to house guests both long term or just over night. It was designed to sustain and thrive in Detroit's new direction. Lunch will be included.

Cost: $70.00/person
