A Note from Rick: Markets show weakness across the board. The Organic Dairy Sale brought lots of new faces to TLA and is something we are looking forward to growing. Beef prices were slightly lower on Tuesday with the exception of bull calves. I was very happy with the Special Dairy Sale on Thursday despite a little weaker market. We had an excellent group of Springers that sold consistently from start to finish. We are going to continue to attract more buyers from all over if we continue to have the number of high quality cattle that we have been. It seems every agricultural industry- dairy, beef, grain, poultry, pork, etc. is struggling in a big big way. It's tough for producers right now and I sure hope that our newly elected President has a plan to revive our economy. The Trumpster made it and I sure hope he does "Make America Great Again"!
