

Minnesota Music Hall of Fame

Inductee

Dominick Argento

Inducted in 1999

Dominic Argento – This Pulitzer Prize winner is considered America's pre-eminent composer of lyric opera. A longtime Regents' Professor at the University of Minnesota, Argento is one of the most significant forces in Minnesota's classical music community for the past 40 years.

