Wednesday Bible Study

Held at 10:30am, on Wednesdays
when Eucharist service is held at noon.

Our group has been studying the gospel of John.

In case you haven't read the first chapter in a while, here is a synopsis from the website SMOOP.

Make Way for Jesus

- In the beginning, there's Jesus.
- Jesus is God's word. He's always been with God and always will be. Word. (Sorry, we had to.)
- Everything in the world is made through this guy. He's the light that shines in the darkness, and the darkness can't do anything to stop him. So, yeah, he's a pretty big deal.
- John the Baptist is around, too, but he's just been sent by God to tell everyone about the light (i.e., Jesus). Hey, there has to be a messenger, right?
- Side note: for those of you who might be thinking that John is the light sent from God, John's gospel wants you to know that he is not.

The light is Jesus, and people are about to get hit with that info—hard.

- Yes, it's true Jesus is already here, living in the world, but the people of the world don't know about him—yet. Some of them don't like or won't accept him either, but the ones who do accept him will be VIPs in God's book. That's a pretty good incentive, wouldn't you say?
- If that weren't enough, we're told that Jesus is also everything God says and thinks in human form. He lives among us and we get to see how glorious he is. He will show us all God's grace and truth. Well, then.
- Again, John the Baptist stresses to everyone that Jesus is the important one we should be paying attention to. John is not the light. Thanks John, we got it the first time.
- Why does Jesus rank above John? Because he's eternal and divine. Oh, got it.
- Moses might have given the people their laws, but Jesus will show all of us what God is really about. Sorry, Moses—at least you got to talk to that burning bush.
- By the way, no person has ever seen God, except those who have seen Jesus. Yep, that's right. Jesus = God.
- It's actually God who brought Jesus into the world.

Be thankful for your trials. If you're being tested, you're being perfected. Which means you have a divine purpose and reason to rejoice.

September Remembering

Father Leon Mozeliak

When the picture of Jesus holding the World Trade Center Towers (that were obliterated by Terrorists on September 11, 2001) appeared on the internet earlier this month, I was touched by the message the picture told. Then the question immediately came to mind, "Does God hurt when humans hurt?"

We are all aware that pain is real for each and everyone; and depending on the day we share in our own portion quite often, and at times pain seems to never cease. Where is God in all of this? Does God even care? If so, why doesn't God just stop pain from happening?

Then I remembered a verse from the First Gospel when Jesus wept over the Holy City. (Matthew 23:37) "Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the city that kills the prophets and stones those who are sent to it! How often have I desired to gather your children together as a hen gathers her brood under her wings, and you were not willing!" ... and I wonder how many, if any, of us would be willing to surrender our free will.

Or could this be the wrong question to be asking since very often our pain is caused by our own actions, or the actions of other human beings, and each one of us has free will. This was the case with the three terrorist incidents that took place back in 2001. At other times, pain is experienced simply because of the human condition; our bodies aren't made to last forever. As I think about it, does anything on earth last forever?

So, I returned to the original question that I asked. Does God hurt when humans hurt? Then the answer seemed to be obvious. If God doesn't, why would God have become one of us in the person of Jesus? Why would Jesus have lived his earthly life on such a meager scale simply to teach us the ways of God, and how God would have us live? And most importantly, why would the Incarnation of the One who is omnipotent allow himself to suffer the most excruciating pain that could be inflicted on a human being, just because God loves us?

Then I remembered other words that Jesus taught us... (John 15:13) "No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends." ... and the answer to my question came to me... "Yes."

Friendship

A friend is someone you can be alone with and have nothing to do and not be able to think of anything to say and be comfortable in the silence.

*The ninety-five year old woman at the nursing home received a visit from one of her fellow church members.

"How are you feeling?" the visitor asked.

"Oh." said the lady. "I'm just worried sick!"

"What are you worried about, dear?" her friend asked

"You look like you're in good health. They are taking care of you, aren't they?"

"Yes, they are taking very good care of me."

"Are you in any pain?" she asked.

"No, I have never had a pain in my life."

"Well, what are you worried about?" he friend asked again.

The lady leaned back in her rocking chair and slowly explained her major worry. >>

"Every close friend I ever had has already died and gone on to heaven. I'm afraid they're all wondering where I went."

*Sherlock Holmes and Dr. Watson went on a camping trip. As they lay down for the night, Holmes said: "Watson, look up into the sky and tell me what you see."

Watson said: "I see millions and millions of stars."

Holmes: And what does that tell you?"

Watson: "Astronomically, it tells me that there are millions of galaxies and potentially billions of planets. Theologically, it tells me that God is great and that we are small and insignificant. Meteorologically, it tells me that we will have a beautiful day tomorrow. What does it tell you Holmes?"

Holmes: "Somebody stole our tent."

Do you remember our & estate sale on Saturday, August 11TH from 8 AM – 3 PM ???

IF ..... WE want to remember, perhaps ..... now ..... WE can laugh? !

WE worked extremely hard hauling, compiling and pricing all the “merchandise” between Wednesday morning and Friday night. It was so hot and humid, but WE worked very long and hard getting ready for Saturday morning.

Well, our sale day actually turned out to be a work day from 7 AM to 5 PM. WE had so much “merchandise” WE didn’t know where to put it all! WE sold approx. 100 bags of clothes at $1/bag and still had lots left over! WE had almost no room to move around each, of the 15 large, tables in the Parish hall. WE had almost as much “merchandise” under the tables, as was on the tables! WE were blessed to have two households donated to our cause, along with the numerous items WE donated ourselves. WE had our Academy Street side yard filled w/all of the larger house hold items. WE were so busy WE had a steady stream of people from 7:30 until 1:30 with-out let up. Sometimes WE needed 2 cashiers to alleviate the congestion and waiting line. WE also had other cashiers for the clothes and outside merchandise. WE were so blessed with great weather!

WE made approximately $3,000.

$1,500 will be allocated towards our present expenses. $750 will go into our Capital Improvement Fund while the other $750 will help purchase food for our Tuesday night dinners.

WE are:

Dave/Lee & sons, Sharon B, Ed G, Becky, Nancy/Ed, Dave C, Lynne F, Ed R, Shelly, Dave/Lynn, Joe/Kirby/Koda, Tina, Brenda A, Barb C, and Cathy F.

Thank you, from the bottom of my heart, to all of you “WE”! WE are a small congregation, but WE all pull together especially when WE plan yearly projects. The community so looks forward to our, extremely popular, sale every year. Faithfully, garage sale chair, Sonja.

Be thankful for your trials. If you're being tested, you're being perfected. Which means you have a divine purpose and reason to rejoice.
