Celebrating May Birthdays

Their birth flowers are lily of the valley

The lily of the valley, also known as the May lily, symbolizes a host of good traits: humility, chastity, sweetness, purity, and luck in love. The hawthorn tree is also associated with May birthdays; it represents love and protection, so May babies have a lot of love in their lives.

The birthstone is emerald

The May birthstone is the emerald, which has a green color that embodies springtime. Emeralds symbolize spring's rebirth.
