Can it be Christmas 2013 Already ???

We definitely do not live in the laid back Africa we used to hear about \O/ ..... Our days are full to over flowing and the amazing moments in life seem to never end. We have incredible and at times unimaginable challenges and always our faithful father is waiting with solutions and a way forward. To keep our hearts softened towards those who (hopefully ) unknowingly do so much harm and ..... really couldn't that include us all as we forge ahead in life knowing in part, seeing in part? Yet his promise to bring good out of it all when we ... Well it cant get any better than that !!! MERRY CHRISTMAS dear family and friends and friends of friends! Josephine, Sophie
