President's Message

Dear Branch Members,

If you happen to read this on January 31, then Happy Birthday Franz Schubert and Philip Glass. I just returned from the Styles Festival at SBCSL (January 19) and it was a lovely event with accomplished students/performers who played a variety of repertoire including compositions by Gershwin, Kabalevsky, Dave Brubeck, Ligeti and Oscar Peterson. Bravo to the Styles Festival Chair, participants and their teachers. As I recall, the Styles Festival was the brain child of Willie Chen. Kudos Willie!

This month will be filled with musical goodies at the General Meeting, SCJBF, the Branch Recital and the Bach/Baroque Festival - a good month for JS Bach and perhaps his sons, as well. May I include a special thanks to our CM Director for her 24/7 work with CM related details, tips of the week and techno savvy recommendations, such as providing some MP3 players for our CM testing. Hope to see you at Kimiyo's house on the 6th for the General Meeting, "All in the Family." No worries, Archie Bunker won't be there.

Best wishes and Happy Valentine's Day and Chopin's Birthday this month.

Leonne Lewis

nIceLandscape concerts

I have been a member of MTAC Long Beach for two years now. I am a piano teacher, coming from France. I have been blessed to meet Ivan Bellocq a renowned French composer and flutist, who wrote a solo piece Iceland two years ago that I premiered in Orléans (France) in February 2012.

This gave birth to a collaboration for a project centered around Iceland (that Ivan Bellocq visited and was fascinated with), Landscape (Ivan Bellocq, close to nature, is sensitive to landscapes and it is a reference to In a Landscape by John Cage). We called it nIceLandscape. It includes the solo piece Iceland; a piece for piano, flute and speaker, The Birds of Kirkjubaejarklaustur; In a Landscape by John Cage; Sea Fragment, world premiere for flute, piano and two speakers and Story by Cage for four voices.

These pieces are truly unique and the intricacy of text and music (a landmark of this project) give them a poetry and an expressivity that I hope you all may enjoy. Please find the calendar of the 4 concerts that will be given. You have 3 posters for the 3 first posters. I will keep you updated for the March Concert, that will take place in Fullerton, in a prestigious festival centered around the Voice. Please note the first concert will be held in Long Beach!!

Newsletter Editor Instructions

1. Click onto firefox 2.0 browser on your computer, or download the newest version from www.firefox.com, and create a new page by going under the pulldown menu "file" and clicking on "new window."

2. Go to www.classicaledge.com and log on and click on to the following: Log into your account. Click on "mtac-lb," then "account" then "website," "edit pages" and "newsletter" tab above. Click on the Create* button below the tabs. Change the newsletter Name to the next month's name, such as "July Newsletter." Don't worry about the email and PDF options yet, and do NOT click "Publish Now." Once you publish a newsletter, it's difficult to alter it and resend it.

Go to the "Past Issues" on the top right of the screen and "cut and paste" the top information from last month's newsletter, changing only the necessary information such as date and newsletter editor info. Be sure to save your work constantly, by clicking on the little icon that looks like a floppy disk on the top line, about 4 icons over from the left, in the menu. If you do not see this menu, located under the Newsletter Name area, then click on the little down-arrow and it should reveal the icon menu.

You can click on the various icons to figure out each one.

I recommend that you do a "tester" newsletter to get familiar with how this program functions.

Some tips with formatting:

You can move your browser slowly over each icon and the title of each icon should appear.

The little line divider that I use between sections of the newsletter is located next to the smiley face on the right side of the icon menu.

One of the most difficult things about formatting the newsletter is that each paragraph must be moved by the up/down arrow on the right side, and you may not be able to see the entire paragraph at once because of the small screen. You will have to move the slider on the right to view the other parts that you cannot see. You may be able to open up this space with the little icon that looks like a computer screen (maximize the editor size.)

Importing photos: Click on the little square that has a mountain and sun on it, the middle-right of the icons (insert/edit image.) (Click on edit size if you wish to edit the photo size.) Click on the red "upload" button, wait a second, and then click on "ok." The photo should now appear in your newsletter. You can center the photo by clicking on the paragraph formatting icons.

Be sure to save your work frequently by clicking on the disk icon!

When you are ready to send out the newsletter:

Click "Create." Make sure you are using the correct Newsletter Name. Select "Email only Teachers" under Email Options. For PDF Options click "Include PDF on Website and Send Link on email."

3. I was able to type in the white box to set up a new tester page that says "Tester Newsletter for MTACLB by Noreen." I didn't publish it, so you can see it when you log in and go to edit the newsletter, but not from the www.mtaclb.com website. You may want to set up a tester newsletter to try it out before publishing.

4. I cut and pasted the top part of the April newsletter and clicked on the photo of the little disk immediately to save it. I did find that if I tried to cut and paste too large of a section, or a section with too large of font for that paragraph, I did receive a note that I exceeded the amount of space permitted for that paragraph, and my information DID NOT save. I went back and tried to cut and paste a smaller section, saving the section immediately, and it DID work.

5. After about 8-10 minutes, I did receive a pop-up alert asking if I wanted to extend the session. I clicked "okay", and it didn't kick me off. The pop up did not come up again for a long time.
