

Sally A. Frost, 91, of Port Austin passed away on Thursday, September 29, 2016 surrounded by her family at Huron Medical Care Facility in Bad Axe.

She was born in Detroit, Michigan on April 15, 1925 and was the daughter of the late North and Dorothy Bourne.

She and her husband, Richard L. Dailey, raised their family in South Redford and spent summers at Broken Rocks, Port Austin. She was widowed at a young age when Richard died, and she later married William M. Frost. She and Bill made Broken Rocks their retirement home. They traveled extensively and spent their winters in Florida. He also preceded her in death.

Sally was a loving mother, who had the ability to make each of her children feel like they were equally special to her. She was dearly loved by her family and everyone who knew her. She will be deeply missed by her family and the people she has left behind. She was a person who truly managed to touch the hearts of those who were fortunate enough to have known her.

Sally is survived by six children, Mark (Marilyn) Dailey, Kenneth (Barbara) Frost, Lisa (John) Pridnia, Stephen (Denise) Frost, North (Elaine) Dailey, Richard (Agnes) Frost, as well as eleven grandchildren, two precious great-granddaughters, and her special sibling, Mary Jo Fezzey.

She was preceded in death by two wonderful husbands, her parents, and one brother, John Bourne.

Visitation for Sally A. Frost will be on Friday, October 14, 2016 from 4:00 to 8:00 pm at the Knoblock Funeral Home in Kinde. There will be a private burial service on Saturday . In lieu of flowers, the family has requested that donations be made to the John D. Pridnia Community Services Fund, Huron County Community Foundation, P.O. Box 56, Bad Axe, Michigan 48413
