

Lenten Soup Suppers: God and Outsiders

Our Lenten soup suppers will address “God and Outsiders” this year. On Wednesday evenings we will gather for a short soup and bread meal. Following dinner, we will delve into a text that includes a person who would have been considered an outsider at the time. We will discover wonderful and surprising things about each of the people we study. In their own way, each so-called “outsider” contributed to what God was doing, surprised the powerful elite and challenged assumptions about God.

In the centuries since these stories were written, society has changed a great deal. However, insiders and outsiders still exist. Come join us for great discussions about what God has done and is doing in the world.
