From the Editor

What a nice turnout for Vairs at the Fair. I do believe it might have been one of the hottest years that I have attended but we all had great time. Chuck's article has the details on it and the Hilton Head Show. Hope you can make it to the meeting Saturday! Unfortunately, I will be attending my great Niece's birthday party in Lagrange and will miss it. I plan on seeing everyone next month at the Christmas party! If you have an ad in our classifies that is no longer available or needs to be removed, please let me know. I would like to clean this up some.

Thanks,
Clay

From The White House – Well I lived in a white house – Chuck Smith – President

Our club has been very busy the last few weeks. " Vairs at the Fair " was a huge success; the weather was wonderful, although very hot, thank goodness the parade seemed to move along faster than usual. Everyone had a good time in the parade, there was much candy thrown, much to the delight of the parade onlookers, and all of the comments I heard about the fair were good. Here are some numbers from Vairs at the Fair: 53 at the hospitality party Friday night, 57 at the Saturday night dinner, 25 cars in the parade, and there were 15 first time attendees. And a sincere thank you goes out to Ben Gleaton & Company for the delicious meal that was prepared for the Saturday dinner!

On Saturday, November 3rd, 10 Corvairs participated in the Hilton Head Island Concours d' Elegance & Motoring Festival. The ' Vairs were in the Car Club Showcase part of the event, which includes local and regional clubs displaying their vehicles. Attending the show were: Billy and Eleanor Bruce, 1961 Lakewood, Chuck Smith and Shirley Smith, 1967 Sport Sedan, Lillian Law, 1963 Rampside, Chris and Joan Law, Corvair Trike, Frank Metasavage, 1966 Corsa, Ronnie and Patti Jenkins, 1965 Corsa, Mike Gassmann, 1965 Monza convertible, Joe and Rhonda Gail Gleaton, V-8 Rampside, Gary and Alice Patterson, 1965 Monza convertible, and Billy, Wendy, and Kevin Price, 1964 8-door Greenbrier. There were three award winners from our group, Lillian Law, Billy Bruce, and Ronnie Jenkins.

Well,that's about it for this issue. Keep in mind that our famous Christmas bash will be coming up soon, and I am STILL waiting to see articles from some of our other members. I know there are some writers among our group somewhere. Hope to see you at the November meeting!

Keep them 'Vairs on the road, and do something nice for someone!
