Ordinary Without Jesus
May 2019 Sermon Series

After Easter, we have the same question the disciples did...now what? And that's usually not the only question either, when we consider what to do in the moment: rely on our own strengths and abilities, or the Holy Spirit and gifts He's given us?

May 5 King Jesus Time? Acts 1:1-11

It's an amazingly dramatic time in the life of 11 men. Can you imagine? Handpicked by Jesus, given His authority, and soon power, to do the impossible. What would you do with that responsibility? If you're like the disciples the answer is simple: nothing.

May 12 Why THAT Guy? Acts 1:21-26

There's a hole in the leadership team that Jesus picked; blame Judas (the bad one, not the one still there). Can anyone be a leader of the church? What standards did the remaining disciples show us, and does it still apply to JRCC today?

May 19 What's All the Racket? Acts 2:1-13

When God sends the Holy Spirit to live in all believers, it literally shakes things up! Why the sudden change from Old Testament times, from being picky about who gets the Holy Spirit, to now residing in every Christian? Wait until you see the impact the Holy Spirit can have... on non-believers?

May 26 What's This Church Thing? Acts 2:42-47

Our initial look into Acts ends with the first mention of something we still do today: church. There are 4 key things the first church did that we can use to evaluate JRCC and see if we are making the impact we are supposed to. Now that's a Memorial Day to remember!
