This modern American woman artist painted, designed, did murals, embroidery and tapestries that are unique. She excelled at her work, her home and had gifted American Art a wonder filled legacy. This is my latest scripting for the Museum and the event will be a premier performance.

As a professional storyteller, I make a special selection of stories for each audience. Some tales the audience recognize, some they may be hearing for the first time. I include ancient Greek myths, tales Africa, India and America. My goal is that memories be both stirred and made.

I will be telling some fascinating "FOLK TALES FROM AROUND THE WORLD" at Westminster Suncoast on June 18th at 1 p.m. I relate fables, myths and stories that are ancient and made newly relevant to today's audience. This event is part of their marketing initiatives. RSVP for this free performance (with hors d'ouvres) by June 11. Please call Patty Griffin at (866) 875-2802. She'll gladly answer all your questions.
