Welcome to our 2nd CFB Preview

As many of you know we've been doing weekly CFB/NFL newsletters for several years. We've always had an interest in doing a CFB preview but the timing hasn't always worked. Last year we decided to start the process of putting it all our data/info together in a preview.

Keep in mind, this is just the start of our CFB previews. We expect to expand our write-ups and our team previews in the coming years. With that in mind, if we're talking pure CFB gambling content, no other CFB preview has as many bets, lines, data and betting specific info on the market today!

This year's preview will be sent FREE to anyone who is subscribed to our weekly newsletter this season. Next year's preview will cost around $50.

If you're not familiar with our weekly CFB and NFL newsletter. We write-up every football game, give out our top picks of the week and also give you other betting info like power ratings, injuries, trends, misleading finals, etc. Overall, you are 614-514-23 (54%) betting every single star-rated pick (CFB and NFL) in our weekly newsletter the last 7 years. You can see all our picks each year starting on page 54. In an industry where so many touts advertise guaranteed winners and 70-90% records, the reality is 54% is the best record by far out of any newsletter the last 7 years and the most successful bettors (ex: Billy Walters) of all time have hit only 57% over the long haul.

With each passing year, we have more influence on markets and if getting the absolute best number is important to you, VIP might be worth your while this season. It is $599 and it is for all sports for 12 months. You will receive the picks via email and text. You can sign up today at bradpowerssports.com. If you want to learn more about the differences between our weekly newsletter vs VIP service, refer to page 2 or email brad@bradpowerssports.com

We hope you enjoy this CFB preview and we look forward to a successful 2022 football season.

Sincerely,

Brad Powers and Staff

2022 CFB Playoff Projections

Unless something drastic changes like a starting QB getting hurt or a head coach leaving, we think these are the four likely playoff teams for 2022 in our current projections.

1. Alabama +210 Title Odds BetOnline

The Crimson Tide return the Heisman Trophy winner in QB Bryce Young, have the best defensive player in the country in Will Anderson and also the best coach in CFB history in Nick Saban. Our early projections have the Crimson Tide favored in all 12 games by double-digits and we made a decent wager on Alabama +325 to win it all.

2. Ohio State 5/1 Title Odds BetOnline

Quite simply, the Buckeyes should have the best offense in the country in 2022. Ohio State returns QB CJ Stroud, RB TreVeyon Henderson and WR Jaxon Smith-Njigba. The schedule is difficult (No. 17) but Notre Dame, Wisconsin, Iowa and Michigan all come to the Horseshoe and we currently project the Buckeyes to be favored in every game by double-digits.

3. Georgia +475 Title Odds BetOnline

The defending National Champs have to replace a lot of star power on the defensive side of the ball including Travon Walker, Jordan Davis and Nakobe Dean. However, the offense returns 7 starters and the Bulldogs have recruited extremely well (6 straight Top 4 classes). Most importantly, the schedule could see the Bulldogs favored in all 12 games by double-digits as they avoid Alabama, Texas A&M, Ole Miss and LSU from the SEC West.

4. Clemson 12/1 Title Odds DraftKings

After six straight ACC Championships and six straight appearances in the CFB playoffs, the Tigers had a very disappointing 10-win campaign in 2021. We think the Tigers are poised for a bounce-back and it starts on offense as they return 9 starters. RB Will Shipley and DT Bryan Breese should be much healthier in 2022. The schedule isn't easy but we expect the Tigers to be favored in 11 of 12 games with the exception being at Notre Dame in November.

6 Teams that Could make a Playoff Run

Utah 80/1 Title Odds FanDuel

We think Utah (not USC!) is the clear favorite in the Pac-12 this season. The Utes return QB Cam Rising and will be tough up front. If they can win at Florida in the season opener (we have project Utah a slight favorite), the Utes could be favored in all of their games this season.

Michigan 60/1 Title Odds FanDuel

This may surprise some considering the Wolverines lose a ton of talent led by DE Aidan Hutchinson. However, we think the offense will be better in 2022 and did you see their schedule? The Wolverines will be favored in every game prior to the finale in Columbus.

Oklahoma 55/1 Title Odds Circa

We would have Oklahoma higher on this list but there are a lot of question marks in Norman starting with first-year coach Brent Venables and a new QB in Dillon Gabriel from UCF. Still, the Sooners could find themselves favored in all 12 games this season (Big 12 is down this season).

Texas A&M 30/1 Title Odds Fox Bet

The Aggies are getting a lot of love thanks to signing one of the best recruiting classes ever (8 5-stars!). A&M could be favored in 11 of their 12 games (exception at Alabama) but outside of 2020, head coach Jimbo Fisher always loses a game or two he shouldn't.

Notre Dame 60/1 Title Odds FanDuel

We're not super high on ND this year. The Irish have a first-year coach in Marcus Freeman, a first-year QB in Tyler Buchner and a road trip to Ohio State in Week 1. Still, the Irish could find themselves favored in 10-11 games this season.

NC State 200/1 Title Odds Westgate

Looking for a long-shot? NC State returns 17 starters from a 9-win team. The Wolfpack could be favored in as many as 11 games this season (exception at Clemson).

Group of 5 thoughts:

We don't see a Group of 5 team making the playoffs but keep an eye on Cincinnati again if they beat Arkansas in Week 1. UCF will also be favored in at least 10 games and host Louisville and Cincinnati.

Texas A&M Ranks No. 1 in 247Sports 2022 Team Composite Recruiting Rankings

BP Sports used to do an average of all the major recruiting service rankings to come up with our own rankings. However, the 247Sports Composite rankings already does that for us. It is a proprietary algorithm that compiles recruiting rankings and ratings listed in the public domain by the major media recruiting services (ESPN, Rivals, 247, etc) creating the industry's most comprehensive and unbiased prospect and team rankings. (Total = # of signees, 5★ = # of star-rated signees).

USC Ranks No. 1 in 247Sports 2022 Transfer Portal Rankings

The transfer portal is becoming more and more prominent in CFB with each passing season. This year already more than 1,000 players have transferred to a FBS school with another 1,000 players still left in the portal. Following the portal is just as important, if not more, than recruiting at this point because we are talking about players with CFB experience and can be instant impact players. Below is a list of the 247 transfer portal rankings per school. (Total = # of transfers, 5★ = # of star-rated transfers).

2022 Team-By-Team Recruiting Notes

SEC Recruiting Notes:

1. Texas A&M signed the best class in the internet recruiting era (last 20 years). Incredibly, the Aggies signed EIGHT 5-stars and 18 Top 100 players including 7 on the defensive line.
2. Alabama signed the #2 class. It's the 11th time in the last 12 years the Tide have signed a Top 2 class. Bama brings in 15 Top 100 players.
3. Georgia's last 6 recruiting classes have ranked #3 (2022), #4, #1, #2, #1 and #3 (2017). This year's class has 11 Top 100 players.
4. New LSU head coach Brian Kelly is bringing in 31 new players (15 frosh/16 transfers) and their overall class ranks #7.
5. Kentucky's #14 class is their best finish ever. 4-star OL Kiyaunta Goodwin is the Wildcats' top-rated recruit since 2006.
6. Missouri's #15 class is their best finish ever. 5-star WR Luther Burden is their 2nd highest rated recruit in school history.
7. Only two of Tennessee's 23 signees are from the state of Tennessee.
8. Auburn class ranks of #18 and #21 the last 2 years are their worst back-to-back performances since 2009-2010.
9. Florida's #17 class was their 2nd worst finish in the last 20 years.
10. Ole Miss is bringing in 36 new players including 17 transfers led by USC QB Jaxon Dart.
11. South Carolina's last two classes have ranked #25 and #79 which is their worst back-to-back finishes in modern history. The Gamecocks do bring in 9 transfers led by QB Spencer Rattler.
12. Each of Mississippi St's last 7 classes have ranked between #24 and #28. Consistency!
13. Ten of Arkansas' last 11 classes have ranked between #22 and #29 including this year's #28 class.
14. While Vanderbilt's #32 class finished last in the SEC this year, it was the Commodores' 2nd best finish nationally in the last 20 years!

Big Ten Recruiting Notes:

1. Eight of Ohio St's Top 18 overall recruits (since 2000) have signed in the last 3 years!
2. Penn St's #6 class is tied for their best finish in modern history (last 20 years of Rivals, Scout, 247).
3. Michigan 5-star CB Will Johnson is the Wolverines' highest-rated CB recruit in modern history.
4. Illinois' #26 class is their best finish in school history. 4-star Edge Dasan McCullough is their top-rated recruit ever.
5. Michigan St's #22 finish was their best since 2016.
6. Iowa has signed back-to-back Top 30 classes for the first time in the internet recruiting era.
7. 6 of Maryland's top 8 recruits are from Maryland.
8. Rutgers' #33 class was their best finish since 2012.
9. Purdue 4-star QB Brady Allen is their highest-rated QB recruit since Kyle Orton in 2001.
10. Nebraska's #41 class was their worst finish in modern history. The Huskers do bring in 16 transfers and their overall class is #32.
11. Wisconsin's #44 finish was their 2nd worst in the last 10 years.
12. Illinois' #46 class is tied for their best finish in the last 11 years. The Illini haven't signed a 4-star recruit in the last 3 classes!
13. Minnesota's #49 finish was their worst since 2017.
14. Northwestern WR Reggie Fleurima is the Wildcats' top-rated WR recruit ever.

ACC Recruiting Notes:

1. Clemson's #10 class was their lowest finish since 2017. However, the Tigers got the top QB in the country in Cade Klubnik.

Bill Connelly's Returning Production vs Phil Steele's Experience Chart

Returning starters are just a basic approach to analyzing what a team brings back experience wise. Bill Connelly's returning production formula looks at the most predictive key personnel stats -- the numbers that have the most impact on improvement or regression from season to season. For example, what percentage of your QBs' combined passing yardage is returning? Your offensive line snaps? Your defensive tackles for loss? Meanwhile, Phil Steele's experience chart also takes a more thorough approach including the % of yards and tackles returning along with offensive line career starts. BC column = Bill Connelly's Returning Production Rank. PS column = Phil Steele's Experience Chart Rank. RS column = # of returning starters. Rk column = average of BC and PS.

2022 Position-By-Position "Up/Downs" for all 131 FBS teams!

Since we don't handicap baseball, the summer months give us ample time to go through all 131 FBS teams team with a fine tooth comb for the upcoming college football season.

One of the methods we use in coming up with some initial power ratings for each team are our position-by-position "Up/Downs." Basically, we go through every position of every team and give a value of "-3 to +3" for QBs, RBs, WR/TE, OL, DL, LBs, DBs, Special Teams, Coaches and Intangibles.

A team with a "+3" for a single position means that we have that position power-rated up 3 points from the previous season. A good example for this year would be South Carolina's QB position. Last year due to injuries, grad assistant coach Zeb Noland had to make several starts at QB. Now this year South Carolina welcomes in Oklahoma transfer Spencer Rattler who was the Heisman favorite heading into last season.

A team with a "-3" for a single position means that we have that position power-rated down three points from the previous season. A good example for this year would be Boston College's offensive line. Last year all five starters returned and they had 125 career starts. This year they were expected to lose 4 starters. Then RG Christian Mahogany (arguably the best OL in the ACC) was injured during summer workouts and will miss the season. Now the Eagles return only 4 career starts (at the FBS level).

With 10 different categories, the maximum value a team can be up or down from the previous season is 30. That +30 or -30 points rarely, if ever, happens and the only example we can give you in the last 10 years of a team being nearly 4 TD's different (power ratings wise) from the previous season is UCF in 2015. The Knights went 0-12 (-24 ppg) in 2015 following a 9-4 season where they were +9 ppg. We had them power-rated 27 points lower by the end of the season. The next closest was Louisville who went from 8-5 in 2017 (+11 ppg) to 2-10 (-24 ppg) in 2018. We had them power-rated down about 24 points from the beginning of the season.

Below are our "Up/Downs" for every position on every team. For the coach's category (CCH), new coaches can sometimes be downgraded because they are new to that program and don't know the strengths and weaknesses of the players yet. Also they could be installing new schemes on offense and/or defense and the current players might not fit their styles of play.

Finally, the intangibles category covers a broad range of categories including Close Wins/Losses from the previous year, Strength of Schedule (is it weaker or stronger from last year?), Turnovers, Injuries (were they healthy or banged up last year), etc. A team like Ohio was graded "+2" in that category because they were -7 in TO's, suffered three close losses and lost 47 starts due to injury.

As you can see Southern Miss has the highest "plus" grade coming off a season where TEN different QB's took a snap under center (not a typo, TEN!!!). This year they return 17 starters. USC also tops the chart as the Trojans went just 4-8 last year but welcome in Lincoln Riley and 20 new transfers. Nevada, who returns only 5 starters is at the bottom of the chart.

Note: Most teams are "-" this year because on average schools return 4 less starters than they did a year ago (16 returning starters on average vs 12). This is because of the NCAA granting an extra year of eligibility due to the 2020 COVID season. Now most of those "Super Seniors" who played an extra year last year have finally exhausted their eligibility.

2022 Season Win Total Projections (Power Ratings Only)

In order to come up with a season win total projection, we take the projected spread of each game and figure out a win percentage chance for that game. If you have a 90% chance to win a game, you get credit for 0.9 of a win. If you have a 20% chance to win a game, you get credit for 0.2 of a win. When you add up the win percentages for all 12 games, you get an early season win total projection.

Below is an example for Alabama this year. The Crimson Tide will be favored in all 12 games this year by double digits. Does that mean Alabama's season win total should be close to 12? Not when you do the correct math as you get a season win total of 11.06 for the Crimson Tide.

Point Spread Value of All 131 Starting Quarterbacks in CFB

One of the questions we get asked often in our media appearances is “how much is a player worth to a Vegas point spread? Obviously, the quarterback position is by far the most valuable position in football and the only position that will move the needle consistently. Very few non-QB’s can move a point spread more than a point in CFB. In all of our years of handicapping and betting, we’ve never come across a person or service that has listed the point value for all 131 CFB QB’s. Below is our preliminary list of what each starting QB is worth to a point spread in CFB. Remember, there are two parts to this: One is the quality of your starter and two is the quality of your backup. Some might be surprised that Ole Miss’ Jaxson Dart is worth only 0.5 points to the spread despite being a Heisman contender. Remember, his backup Luke Altmyer has experience, would start at a lot of Power 5 programs and Lane Kiffin’s offense is QB-friendly. Plus, Altmyer played much better in the spring game than Dart.

Homefield Advantage for all 131 College Football Teams in 2022

One of the questions we get asked often in our media appearances is “how much is homefield advantage worth in college football? The answer in most seasons is around 3 points. However, if recent years homefield has not meant nearly as much as it did 20 years ago. You could make a case that homefield is arguably closer to 2.5 points now as compared to 3.5 or 4 points in 2000. Below is our homefield numbers for every college football team and also a comparison to what we used last year. Notice there are some subtleties to the numbers. So if you’re wondering how a team like Wyoming can have the same homefield advantage as a team like Tennessee, note that Wyoming plays in 7,200 feet of elevation which is unique with or without fans. Alabama, Clemson, Ohio St, Oklahoma, Penn St and Texas A&M all have 4-point homefield advantages (most in CFB). Meanwhile Akron, Ball St, Bowling Green, Connecticut Kansas and Massachusetts all have 1.5 or 1.25-point homefield advantages (least in CFB).

CFB Season Win Totals at Draft Kings with Brad Powers' Numbers

Notes: The Open # column = opening season win number on June 2nd. The Open + Vig column = the opening number plus the vigorish. That means if the season win total opened at 6.5 with the normal -110 vigorish, it would be 6.5. However, if the season win total was 6.5 but the OVER was -120, the + Vig # would = 6.6. If the OVER was -130, the + Vig # would = 6.7. Similarly, if the season win total was 6.5 and the UNDER was -120, the + Vig # would = 6.4. -130 would equal 6.3, etc.

The Current columns = the current numbers as of July 11th. The BP column is what we make the season win total.

Conference Win Totals at Draft Kings with Brad Powers' Numbers

Notes: The Open # column = opening season win number on June 20th. The Open + Vig column = the opening number plus the vigorish. That means if the season win total opened at 6.5 with the normal -110 vigorish, it would be 6.5. However, if the season win total was 6.5 but the OVER was -120, the + Vig # would = 6.6. If the OVER was -130, the + Vig # would = 6.7. Similarly, if the season win total was 6.5 and the UNDER was -120, the + Vig # would = 6.4. -130 would equal 6.3, etc.

The Current columns = the current numbers as of July 11th. The BP column is what we make the season win total.

Week 1 Computer Projected Lines for Every CFB Game

For the past six seasons we have posted computer projected lines for every game on Wednesday. Games where there was of difference of more than 3 points saw our computer lines actually beat the Vegas line at a 421-355-12 (54%) clip! That's pretty solid and actually better than our own handicapping in some seasons. Keep in mind, these computer lines don't take into consideration off-the-field factors like revenge or flat spots or if there are late-week injuries. They are basically a power-rating number difference between the two teams that also takes into consideration the home field advantage.

Of the 19 games where our computer is off more than 3 points compared to the Vegas line (highlighted), our favorite team this week to back would be Pittsburgh -6.5.

The Comp column is the computer projected line and the Diff column is the difference between the Vegas line and the Computer line. "+" numbers in the difference column say back the underdog. "-" numbers in the difference column say back the favorite. Let us know if you have questions.

Betting CFB Openers

Every Sunday in Vegas at 11am PT, Circa Sports is the first book in the world to release CFB lines and we bet them every week. We think it's the best value bets we make all week. 2020 was the first season where we tracked every single bet we made and posted them in the weekly newsletters. We were very pleased with our 119-76-3 (61%) record on these Sunday bets with an average line value of 2.6 ppg! In 2021, we were 224-196-5 vs the Circa openers with an average line value of 1.8 ppg. Week 1 lines came out in May for all the FBS vs FBS games. Below is some of what we bet already. As of now we've gotten the best of the line on 90-plus percent of our bets by an average of 2.5 ppg.

$550 (300) Nebraska UNDER 55.5 (Circa)

Early Bets/Notes: The Crimson Tide return the Heisman Trophy winner in QB Bryce Young, have the best defensive player in the country in Will Anderson and also the best coach in CFB history in Nick Saban. Our early projections have the Crimson Tide favored in all 12 games by double-digits and we made a decent wager on Alabama +325 to win it all way back on January 10th. We also bet Will Anderson at 40/1 to win the Heisman.

Season Win		11.02

Early Bets/Notes: The defending National Champs have to replace a lot of star power on the defensive side of the ball including Travon Walker, Jordan Davis and Nakobe Dean. However, the offense returns 7 starters and the Bulldogs have recruited extremely well (6 straight Top 4 classes). Most importantly, the schedule should see the Bulldogs favored in all 12 games by double-digits as they avoid Alabama, Texas A&M, Ole Miss and LSU from the SEC West. We bet UGA -13.5 in their opener vs Oregon in Atlanta.

#7 Texas A&M

11/19	Massachusetts	-45.2	100%
11/26	LSU	-10.0	74%
Season Win		8.40

Early Bets/Notes: The Aggies are getting a lot of love this off-season thanks to signing one of the best recruiting classes ever (EIGHT 5-stars!). A&M could be favored in 11 of their 12 games with the exception at Alabama on October 8th where the Aggies will be at least a 2-TD underdog. We bet A&M's season win total OVER 8.5. We feel that gives us enough wiggle room because outside of the 2020 season, Jimbo Fisher always loses a game or two that he shouldn't.

Early Bets/Notes: This is Mike Leach's best team yet but the Bulldogs might only be a 7-win team in the tough SEC West. One of our favorite Week 1 bets we made was Miss St -8 vs Memphis.

Early Bets/Notes: Sam Pittman is doing a great job here with Arkansas coming off their best season in a decade. However, the Razorbacks play the nation's toughest schedule in 2022.

Early Bets/Notes: Off a 10-win season and with QB Will Levis/RB Chris Rodriguez returning, we actually think the Wildcats are being over-valued in the markets. We bet UNDER 8.5 wins.

Early Bets/Notes: The Buckeyes should have the best offense in the country in 2022. Ohio State returns QB CJ Stroud, RB TreVeyon Henderson and WR Jaxon Smith-Njigba. All three are legit Heisman candidates. The schedule is difficult (No. 17) but Notre Dame, Wisconsin, Iowa and Michigan all come to the Horseshoe and we currently project the Buckeyes to be favored in every game by double-digits. We expect them to be back in the CFB Playoff.

Early Bets/Notes: The markets are down on Michigan this season as the Wolverines lose a ton of talent led by DE Aidan Hutchinson. However, we think the offense will be better in 2022 especially at the skill positions (QB/WR). Did you see their schedule above? The Wolverines will be favored in every game prior to the finale in Columbus. We expect Michigan to win 10 games this season for the 5th time in Harbaugh's eight years.

11/19	at Rutgers	-15.4	87%
11/26	Michigan State	-5.7	66%
Season Win		8.30

Early Bets/Notes: The Nittany Lions have been a big time under-achiever the last two seasons with a 11-11 overall record. This year's team is improved despite losing eight players to the NFL Draft. They bring in one of their best recruiting classes in recent memory. Early season road games at Purdue and at Auburn will determine whether the Nittany Lions are a contender or a pretender in 2022. We felt their win total was priced accordingly at 8-8.5.

Early Bets/Notes: We think Iowa could be better than last year's team which was fortunate to win 10 games. However, the schedule is difficult and we thought their 7.5-win total was priced right.

Early Bets/Notes: Despite heavy losses at the line of scrimmage we're high on the Gophers in 2022. We bet OVER 6.5 wins and laid heavy juice. Take a look at that weak non-conference schedule!

Early Bets/Notes: After six straight appearances in the CFB playoffs, the Tigers had a disappointing 10-win campaign in 2021. We think they are poised for a bounce-back and it starts on offense as they return 9 starters. The schedule isn't easy but we expect the Tigers to be favored in 11 of 12 games with the exception being at Notre Dame in November. We think the Tigers are getting over-looked in the futures markets as we bet them to win the ACC (+140).

Early Bets/Notes: Miami was one team we're much higher on after going through every position (see page 8). New head coach Cristobal is a great fit being a former alum and did a nice job in the freshman/transfer classes. We feel Miami was better than their 21-15 record under Manny Diaz and should finish with their most wins since 2017 (10-3). We bet them 7/1 to win the ACC as they deserve to be the favorites in the ACC Coastal (host Pitt in the finale).

Early Bets/Notes: There's a lot to like about this Wolfpack team as they went 9-3 a year ago and bring back 17 starters. They rank in the top 10 in both Phil Steele's and Bill Connelly's experience rankings. We really like their QB Devin Leary who had a 35-5 TD-to-INT ratio last season. We bet Leary 300/1 to win the Heisman. We also bet NC State OVER 8 wins and OVER 8.5 wins as we think they could be favored in as many as 11 games (exception at Clemson).

Early Bets/Notes: We think Utah (not USC!) is the clear favorite in the Pac-12 this season. The Utes return QB Cam Rising (9-2 as the starter last year) and RB Tavion Thomas who ran for 21 TD's. The Utes will be tough up front on both sides of the ball. If the they can win at Florida in the season opener (we bet Utah in the game +2.5 and +1), the Utes could be favored in all of their games this season. We love OVER 8.5 wins as one of our favorite season win totals.

Early Bets/Notes: New head coach Dan Lanning inherits a talented roster as former coach Mario Cristobal recruited better than any other Pac-12 program the last 3-4 years. Auburn transfer Bo Nix figures to be the starter at QB and Oregon is really good at OL and LB. While we faded Oregon in their opening game vs Georgia (we took UGA -13.5), we thought the Ducks were appropriately priced in the season win total markets at 8.5-9 wins.

Early Bets/Notes: We think USC is the most improved Power 5 team in the country this year. We also think USC is the most overrated team in the country this year! The markets are treating USC like a clear-cut Top 10 even border-line Top 5 team this year. The transfer class is the best in the country led by QB Caleb Williams and WR Jordan Addison. However, there's depth issues at multiple positions for new coach Lincoln Riley. We bet UNDER 9.5 wins.

Early Bets/Notes: We think head coach Dave Aranda is one of the most underrated coaches in the country. Baylor loses 6 players to the NFL draft but still has the best OL/DL combo in the Big 12.

Early Bets/Notes: One of our favorite early summer season win total bets was Kansas St OVER 5.5 wins (albeit low limits). This is head coach Chris Klieman's best team yet.

Early Bets/Notes: Iowa St was a big under-achiever in 2021 as they couldn't handle the hype. This year's team will take a big step back in the power ratings but not necessarily in the W/L column.

Early Bets/Notes: New head coach Sonny Dykes inherits 16 returning starters and the Frogs underachieved in 2021 (2-9-1 ATS). He is installing brand new schemes on both sides of the ball. We bet UNDER 7 wins.

Early Bets/Notes: We think new head coach Joey McGuire is one of the more underrated hires this coaching cycle. Despite a tough schedule, we bet Texas Tech OVER 4.5 and they'll make a big move in 2023.

Early Bets/Notes: This is a tough team to handicap. The Mountaineers only return 10 starters but bring in QB transfer JT Daniels. However, WVU could be underdogs in as many as 8 games and we bet UNDER 6.

Season Win 9.64

Early Bets/Notes: Yes, the Bearcats lost a Group of 5 record 9 players to the NFL Draft. However, we think the markets are downgrading them to much this off-season. Luke Fickell has signed the best 3 classes in school history the last 3 years. Cincy returns all 5 starters on the OL and we like their TE's. Ben Bryant or Evan Prater won't be a huge downgrade at QB. We bet Cincy OVER 9 wins and also bet them +8.5 in week 1 at Arkansas.

Season Win 9.06

Early Bets/Notes: This is a dangerous team this season as the Knights return 15 starters and bring in the No. 37 Frosh/Transfer class (best among Group of 5 teams). Whether it's John Rhys Plumlee or Mikey Keene at QB, we think the offense will be much improved in year two under Malzahn. The schedule is also favorable as UCF gets their two toughest games at home (Louisville and Cincinnati). We could see them getting to 10 wins this year.₃₃

Season Win 8.62

Early Bets/Notes: Dana Holgorsen needed a big 2021 and got it as Houston went 12-2 highlighted by a bowl win over Auburn. QB Clayton Tune is back for yet another season (31 career starts) and Wr Tank Dell is among the nation's best. However, the Cougars lost RB Alton McCaskill to a torn ACL in the spring. They also lost a lot on both the OL and DL. They do have a favorable schedule as we don't project them to be more than a FG underdog in any game.

Season Win		6.46

Early Bets/Notes: After a disastrous 2-10 season, Tulane could triple their win total this season. They will be much improved on offense led by QB Michael Pratt and we like HC Fritz.

Early Bets/Notes: Head coach Mike Houston has built this program the right way. This could be his best team yet but the tough schedule has us selling ECU in 2022 as we bet UNDER 6.5 wins.

Season Win 8.98

Early Bets/Notes: Head coach Bill Clark just announced his retirement a couple weeks ago. That's a major setback considering Clark was among the Group of 5's best. Even with his loss, UAB is still the best team in CUSA this season. They return RB DeWayne McBride and QB Dylan Hopkins. They have two long-time coordinators on offense and defense. The schedule could see them favored in as many as 11 games. We bet OVER 8.5.

Season Win 7.54

Early Bets/Notes: UTSA is coming off their best season in school history last year as they won 12 games and were ranked as high as No. 15 in the AP poll. We expect this year's team to take a step back mainly due to a tougher schedule. The Roadrunners could be underdogs in each of their first 3 games. We also worry about their QB depth behind Frank Harris who has had some injuries in his past. Still, Jeff Traylor and staff are among the best in the Group of 5.

Season Win 8.60

Early Bets/Notes: Last year's offense saw one of the more dramatic jumps in CFB history as WKU went from 19 ppg in 2020 to 44 ppg in 2021. However, the Hilltoppers lose record-setting QB Bailey Zappe and his incredible 5,967 yards passing and 62 TD's. WKU also loses their top 2 rushers and a pair of 1,000-yard receivers. With that being said, the schedule could see them favored in 9 games and we bet OVER 8.

Season Win 5.46

Early Bets/Notes: We felt MTSU over-achieved last year getting to 7 wins. This year's OL is a major question mark and they lose their top 4 tacklers on defense. It will be tough getting back to a bowl game.

Season Win		7.12

Early Bets/Notes: NIU was the first FBS team in history to win its conference title one year after a winless season. With 17 returning starters, this year's team is better but it might not reflect that in the W/L column.

Early Bets/Notes: The Chips were the best team in the MAC down the stretch going 5-0 SU/ATS highlighted by the bowl upset win over Washington St However, we think this year's team takes a step back and we bet UNDER 8 wins.

Early Bets/Notes: Maurice Linguist was put in a tough spot last year being hired after the spring. He's completely over-hauled the roster by bringing the No. 75 frosh/transfer class (by far the best in the MAC). We think they flirt with a bowl.

Early Bets/Notes: App St has been the model program in the SBC winning at least 9 games every year for the last 7 seasons. We expect more of the same in 2022. They return QB Chase Brice and should have the top run game in the conference. RB's Nate Noel (1,126 rush) and Camerun Peoples (926 rush and 14 TD's) along with 4 OL starters are back. We bet App St 3/1 and +350 to win the SBC, our biggest conference futures bet.

Early Bets/Notes: Despite taking a leap to a new conference, we think Marshall is well-positioned to make some noise in 2022. 2nd-year coach Charles Huff brings in the best Frosh/Transfer class in the SBC. Texas Tech transfer Henry Colombi will be an upgrade at QB. Our absolute favorite bet so far this summer was taking Marshall OVER 5.5 wins at Draft Kings. We think they win at least 8 games and that's being conservative.

Early Bets/Notes: Georgia St won 8 games last year and return 16 starters. Darren Grainger really came on down the stretch at QB and the Panthers should have a great rush attack. They averaged 227 rush ypg last year, return their top 2 RB's and 4 OL starters. However, the schedule is brutal with road trips to South Carolina, Army, App St and Marshall along with a home game vs North Carolina. We bet UNDER 7.5 wins.

Early Bets/Notes: Ricky Rahne did an awesome job last year getting ODU to a bowl. Remember, they were 1-11 in 2019 and didn't play in 2020. This year's team is even better but play a much tougher schedule.
