Solemnity of Christ the King

Luke 23:35-43

“Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom.”

In Mel Brooks' classic movie, History of the World Part I, he portrays several characters including King Louis of France who engages in ridiculous excess and says, “It’s good to be the king.” The segment of that movie is a parody of the romantic notion about ancient and medieval monarchs who were actually abusive and cruel tyrants. Christ was not such a king. When the Jews were under regular attack by the kings of other nations, they asked God for a king to provide protection for them. Saul was the first but he faltered under the weight of the task. David was a king of Judah who, despite his faults, was revered for uniting the Israelites and providing them with equal protection against aggressors and equal access to resources. The role of a true king is not to lord over people and oppress them, but to be a true steward of all that God has given to us and to provide equal protection and resources to all. In other words, to love God and to love our neighbor as ourselves. That is why we celebrate Jesus as King.
