

Call for Quilts at Magnolia Depot Day

April 15, 2017

Name	#of Quilts	Phone	Email

Brief history of this quilt (250 words) including who made it, related dates, previous and current use, and comments on the pattern (attachment is fine):

DELIVERY: Quilts will be accepted at Magnolia City Hall, 18111 Buddy Riley Blvd. until 5 p.m. on April 10. Please deliver quilts in protective wrapping as desired. Quilts will be handled with gloves and NOT made available to the public other than for viewing. There will be at least two narrated presentations on the quilts at Depot Day, April 15, one at 11 a.m. and one at 2 p.m.

PICK-UP: Pick-up of quilts will be at 4:30 p.m. on the day of the event, April 15, at the Magnolia Community Center, 422 Melton St.

NOTE: Quilt and quilt-related vendors are welcomed as well, vendor form may be found at: <http://www.magnoliatxhistoricalsociety.com/attorneys-1.html>

Call for Quilts at Magnolia Depot Day

April 15, 2017

What: An exhibit of local and regional quilts in the Magnolia, Texas area

When: Saturday, April 15, 2017

Where: Historic Magnolia Depot Complex, inside the Magnolia Community Bldg., 422 Melton St.

How: Register/take your quilt to Tana Ross,
tross@cityofmagnolia.com, 713.515.0226

The Magnolia Historical Society is looking for about 12 lap quilts, several queen-sized quilts and a few others to offer a cultural display at Depot Day.

Every quilt
has a story,
let us share
yours!

There is no fee to display quilts. However, space is limited and Magnolia area quilts will be giving first option.

Drop off and pick up information on back of this flyer.