Daily Schedule for Drive 2022

Wades Monument staging area: 100 mile drive

We will stage on Hwy 127, 32 miles north of Baker, California across the street from the Wades Monument. (Before you get to Dumont Dunes off road recreation area)

Support vehicle will be there on Tuesday Nov 1. at 2:00 PM. (Bring water for your animals just in case you arrive before the support vehicle.)

Wednesday Nov 2nd, Shuttle vehicles to Shoshone. 32 miles.

Thursday Nov 3rd. Wagons leave camp at 8:30AM. Drive to Saratoga Springs. Before dinner we will take the support vehicles to the Springs for a great surprise, a lake in the middle of the desert. 6 miles.

Friday Nov 4th Wagons leave camp at 8:30 AM. Drive to Armagosa River Crossing. 13 miles

Saturday Nov 5th Wagons leave camp at 8:30 AM. Drive to Ashford Junction to meet up with the rest of the wagon train travelers. 13 miles at a gradual grade.

Ashford Junction Staging area: 60 mile drive: From Baker, CA, go north on Hwy 127 and turn west on Hwy 178, 1/2 miles north of Shoshone, CA. Travel about 25 miles to the floor of Death Valley and the junction of Harry Wade Road and Badwater Road. Camp will be on the west side of Harry Wade Road (dirt road).

Saturday Nov 5th Arrive at Ashford Junction. The support crew will arrive by 2PM with water and comfort wagon (toilet). (Bring water for your animals just in case you arrive before the support vehicle.)

Sunday Nov 6th We will shuttle trailers to Furnace Creek. Only one person per vehicle. Leave Ashford Junction by 9AM. The shuttle vehicle will meet at the Sunrise Camp RV park @ noon to take you back to camp. If you leave a little early, there will be time for you to grab lunch.

Monday Nov 7th Wagons hitch up and leave at 8:30 am. We are on the pavement for 4 miles, then turn onto the West Side Road. Lunch is around noon, then on to Salt Tanks. We will make a tight circle so the animals will not eat any bushes.

Tuesday Nov 8th Wagons leave at 8:30 am. Lunch is around noon, at the Bennet Long Camp Historical Marker then on to Tule Springs. We will, again, make a tight circle so the animal do not feed on any vegetation, (we do not want to incur any fines)

Wednesday Nov 9th Layover day. There is a waffle contest at 9:00 am. We will pick 3 judges. The winner is based on: 1) The best story, 2) The best presentation, and 3) The best texture and flavor. We have the day to play games, socialize, and cook. We have an auction at 1 PM (you may donate something for the auction if you like). The 'Pot Luck' dinner is at 5:00 pm- Everyone cooks a dish to share. Try to cook something in a DUTCH OVEN and dress in Pioneer clothing. We gather around the campfire for prayer then we travel with our plates to each wagon. Take your utensils, because you eat as you travel. The 49ers will be joining us and we will all share in the feast. We will have a large campfire and entertainment. Its a wonderful night.

Thursday Nov 10th Wagons leave at 8:30 am. Lunch stop is about noon on the road in Devils Golf Course. We pull off to the right side to let visitor vehicles pass.

Then on to Desolation Canyon. We will be joined by the Park Service while we are on the highway after lunch.

Friday Nov 11th We ask that you dress in 'period clothes' for the parade. Ten thousand people will be taking your picture and posting all over the world. Wagons will leave camp by 10:30 am to get to Furnace Creek Inn parking lot by 12:00 noon. There may be time for lunch there. Then, parade to Furnace Creek Ranch at 1:00. We will turn left into the Ranch, by the arch, and circle the wagons beside the Saloon for about 15 minutes. The announcer will have a few things to say, then it's on to the camp ground, (they seem to change the camp every year) Only wagons and livestock allowed in this camp. End of drive. Leave for home Friday or Saturday, Nov. 12th.
